LSU ALMA MATER

WHERE STATELY OAKS AND BROAD MAGNOLIAS
SHADE INSPIRING HALLS,
THERE STANDS OUR DEAR OLD ALMA MATER
WHO TO US RECALLS
FOND MEMORIES THAT WAKEN IN OUR HEARTS
A TENDER GLOW,
AND MAKE US HAPPY FOR THE LOVE
THAT WE HAVE LEARNED TO KNOW.
ALL HAIL TO THEE OUR ALMA MATER,
MOLDER OF MANKIND,
MAY GREATER GLORY, LOVE UNENDING
BE FOREVER THINE.
OUR WORTH IN LIFE WILL BE THY WORTH
WE PRAY TO KEEP IT TRUE,
AND MAY THY SPIRIT LIVE IN US...

CHAMPIONSHIP LEGACY

1 WCWS MOST OUTSTANDING PLAYER
Kristin Schmidt earned Women's College World Series Most Outstanding Player honors in 2004. She is the only player to earn the honor outright and not win the national championship.

3 WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES APPEARANCES
LSU is one of five schools in SEC history with multiple Women's College World Series appearances. The Tigers along with Florida, Georgia and Tennessee have tallied a winning record in WCWS play.

3 ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS
The Tigers have had three CoSIDA Academic All-Americans in the 17-year history of the program, while only one program in the SEC has had more than four.

5 SEC CHAMPIONSHIPS
LSU has claimed a SEC-leading five regular season championships highlighted by four consecutive crowns from 1999-2002. Only three other schools in SEC history – Alabama, Florida and Georgia have claimed multiple regular season titles.

5 SEC TOURNAMENT TITLES
LSU is tied for the conference lead with five SEC Tournament titles and has advanced to the championship game in nine of the past 15 seasons.

16 ALL-AMERICANS
The Tigers have 16 NFCA All-Americans in the 18-year history of the program, second-most of any school in the SEC.

16 NCAA REGIONAL APPEARANCES
LSU has racked up 16 NCAA Tournament appearances, currently on the longest streak in program history which stands at eight. The Tigers are tied for the most NCAA trips among SEC schools since 1997.

863 VICTORIES
LSU has racked up 863 wins, the sixth-most in the nation since reinstating softball in 1997.

TIGER PARK

HOME OF LSU SOFTBALL

"Tiger Park is a wonderful visual representation of not only the commitment to the very deserving LSU softball team, but further, to women's athletics."

CHERI KEMPF
Commissioner/President - National Pro Fastpitch
Broadcast Analyst - ESPN, Cox Sports Television, Fox Sports Network

RATED FIFTH-BEST BUILDING OF LSU ARCHITECTURE

"Best seen at night, when its gables and overhang seem to brighten into shimmering white sails winging through cool ebony skies, the softball stadium shows that LSU can come up with a building that plays to something other than the local taste for plantation imagery and Greco-Roman bric-a-brac. Welling out of a hillock in a way that suggests strong shoulders on the brink of swinging a home run, the softball stadium evidences a modest freshness that brings a smile and savors of popcorn and hot dogs."

The 2015 LSU Softball Media Guide is produced by the LSU Sports Information Office and has been rated among the top seven collegiate softball publications in the nation for eight of the last 13 seasons. The 2012 media guide was awarded "Best in the Nation" and 2013 media guide garnered "Best Cover in the Nation" status for the first time in program history by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). The publication also collected second-place finishes in 2005 and 2011 followed by third-place rankings in 2004, 2007 and 2010, a fifth-place finish in 2006 and a seventh-place showing in 2002.

SOCIAL MEDIA

LSU has been on the cutting edge in college athletics when it comes to integrating social media into its traditional website and publications. Through its sports-specific Facebook, Twitter and Instagram sites, LSU offers its fans in-game updates, behind-the-scenes access to coaches and student-athletes and breaking news.

LSU softball has over 40,000 followers between its Facebook and Twitter pages. Coach Beth Torina keeps her followers up to date with the softball program on her Twitter handle @BethTorina.

MEDIA TRAINING

LSU is one of the few schools where student-athletes go through media training to enhance their communication skills. Dr. Tommy Karam and Dr. Shirley White are two experts in the field who give training sessions to student-athletes on campus. The team's film room turns into a mock press conference setting to get student-athletes acclimated to giving interview in front of both print and electronic media. Karam and White record the mock interviews on camera and then provide feedback, allowing the student-athletes to become more comfortable and confident when doing actual interviews.

SEC ON ESPN & SEC NETWORK

In 2009-10, ESPN and the Southeastern Conference reached a milestone 15-year agreement. ESPN acquired rights to every SEC home football game, excluding those on the CBS network broadcast package. The ESPN family of networks serves as the exclusive national cable home and syndication rights holder for the conference. In August of 2014, the launch of the SEC Network opened programming into over 90 million homes to mark a new era in collegiate athletics. More than 300 softball games will be aired on the network and through its digital offering on SEC Network+.

ACADEMIC CENTER

A $15 million renovation to the Gym Armory in 2002 not only made it among the nation's premier academic centers, but put it at the forefront. Improvements to the existing center give LSU student-athletes the best opportunity for success by providing access to the latest technology, as well as an array of expanded services.

Director of Operations Quinlan Duhon earned her Master of Kinesiology from LSU in December 2013.

40 of 41 LSU softball four-year letterwinners from 1997-2014 have received their bachelor's degree. Alex Boulet, a senior on last year's team earned her degree in mathematics, along with Jacee Blades (Kinesiology) and Rachele Fico (Sports Administration).

LSU student-athletes regularly get hands-on training from various groups to assist beyond their playing days and learn valuable lessons in team building and leadership. . Before the 2015 season, the entire team held various training exercises, including pulling a full-size plane in support of ARC Baton Rouge.

Career Development

STUDENT AFFAIRS AND THE SHAQUILLE O'NEAL LIFE SKILLS PROGRAM

CAREER/PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
In order for student-athletes to be truly prepared for their careers, it is the goal of the Student Affairs and the Shaquille O'Neal Life Skills Program to ensure that each student-athlete will leave LSU with a professional resume, cover letter, and interview experience. The program has three phases: career preparation, the "job project" and a career symposium. Many LSU student-athletes gain experience with career-developing jobs in the community during the summer months.

HOW CAN CHAMPS HELP?
The CHAMPS (Challenging Athletes Minds for Personal Success)/Life Skills program was developed by the NCAA to help prepare student-athletes for the challenges of life beyond the playing field. By focusing on "real life" skills and personal development, the CHAMPS program not only assists student-athletes with meeting daily challenges but also enhances their growth in college years and beyond.

HEALTH/WELLNESS
The goal of the Health & Wellness component of the Student Affairs division is to inform and educate student-athletes about the various health and wellness related issues that they will encounter throughout their tenure at LSU and beyond.

DIVERSITY, INCLUSION & CIVIC ENGAGEMENT
The Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes strives to celebrate, highlight, affirm, and embrace the diversity of LSU student-athletes. They provide an environment that is respectful of cultural, racial, and ethnic differences by acknowledging their individuality and uniqueness. In addition, the programs emphasize the importance of giving back and citizenship by engaging in the University and surrounding community.

The LSU softball team routinely holds clinics and camps for Baton Rouge area youth throughout much of the summer and into the fall. Along with the partnership with the Geaux Teal initiative, the team takes part in various local and national charities, as the picture above is from when coach Torina took on the Chillin' for Charity challenge before she was drenched with ice cold water in the name of charity.

Community Outreach

GEAUX PLAY

LSU has had a longstanding relationship with the Miracle League Association at Cypress Mounds in Baton Rouge. Former All-American Brittany Mack created and championed the "Geaux Play" program leading into the 2012 sesaon where she challenged the LSU softball community to share the gift of sports with special needs children. Over the last two seasons, LSU has hosted "Geaux Play Day" at Tiger Park where the Miracle League participants get to be the team's VIP guests. The children are honored on the field before the game, and the Tigers played a special game afterwards.

STRIKEOUT OVARIAN CANCER TEAL GAME

Over the last three years, LSU softball has played hosted to the program's "Strikeout Ovarian Cancer" event. The Tigers hold a pregame recognition where survivors of ovarian cancer and other gyn cancers are recognized at the ballpark. Head coach Beth Torina's mother, Betty Dieter, is an ovarian cancer survivor. In 2013, LSU held the inaugural "Geaux Teal Ovarian Cancer Walk" where close to $15,000 was raised for research. Torina serves on a committee of women from Baton Rouge to New Orleans with connections to ovarian cancer either as a survivor or lost a family member to the deadly disease. LSU will welcome Georgia on Saturday, April 12, 2014 for this season's "Strikeout Ovarian Cancer" event.

MOVE IN DAY

LSU softball played a major role in President and Chancellor Dr. F. King Alexander's initiative to help the Class of 2018 move into their dorm rooms before the fall semester began in August. The Tigers helped unload cars and greet the incoming students and their families as they arrived on campus.

Athletic Training

LSU boasts the largest and most complete athletic training facilities in all of collegiate athletics with both the Operations Center and the Broussard Center for Athletic Training in Tiger Stadium. Both are furnished with the latest in technology and equipment. The Operations Center training room features a full view of the practice fields, two hot/cold jacuzzis and an underwater treadmill. The Broussard Center includes an on-site x-ray room, an in-house pharmacy, as well as the largest hydrotherapy pool in both collegiate and professional sports and is one of the few collegiate training centers with a full-service pharmacy and a full-service vision center.

HYDROTHERAPY TREATMENT

An integral part of rehabbing and developing LSU student-athletes is the operations center's hot/cold jacuzzis and an underwater treadmill in a fully equipped Hydrotherapy room. The Broussard training center boasts the largest hydrotherapy pool in both collegiate and professional sports.

BROUSSARD ATHLETIC TRAINING CENTER

The two story, 22,000 square foot facility contains 20 treatment tables with the newest forms of modalities available, 14 taping stations, a 1,600 square foot rehabilitation area which contains the latest rehabilitation equipment including the Cybex Norm, Woodway treadmills and Body Master select rise equipment. LSU's multi-million dollar athletic training facility is named in honor of Dr. Martin J. Broussard (left), the legendary trainer whose career spanned over 40 years at LSU.

Strength
AND CONDITIONING

The LSU strength and conditioning facility, located in Tiger Stadium, was built in 1997 and features the latest in both strength training and cardiovascular training equipment.

Melissa Moore and the weight room staff conduct workout sessions that include both strength and endurance training.

LSU GREATS

The following nine individuals are the only athletes to have their jerseys retired by LSU. Men's basketball has retired the No. 23 for Pete Maravich, No. 50 for Bob Pettit, Jr., No. 33 for Shaquille O'Neal and No. 40 for Rudy Macklin. Women's basketball retired the No. 33 for Seimone Augustus. Football's only two retired jerseys are the No. 20 worn by Billy Cannon and the No. 37 worn by Tommy Casanova. Baseball retired the No. 15 in honor of longtime coach and former athletics director Skip Bertman and the No. 20 for Ben McDonald. Casanova, Macklin and McDonald joined the prestigious list in May 2009. Augustus became the first woman in LSU Athletics history to have her jersey retired in January 2010.

50 Bob Pettit

Pettit led LSU to its first NCAA Final Four in 1953 and he later became the first player in NBA history to exceed the 20,000-plus point barrier. Pettit is a member of the NBA Hall of Fame, and in 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

23 Pete Maravich

"Pistol Pete," Maravich still holds the NCAA record for career points with 3,667 and for career scoring average with 44.2 points a game. He was selected the National Player of the Year in 1970 after leading the Tigers to the NIT Final Four. He scored 50-plus points an amazing 28 times. He went on to a 10-year professional career and was selected as one of the NBA's 50 greatest players in 1997.

20 Billy Cannon

One of the true legends of college football in the South, Cannon was the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner and helped the Tigers to the 1958 national title. Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss when No. 1 LSU trailed No. 3 Ole Miss 3-0 in the fourth quarter. He fielded a punt, broke seven tackles and returned it 89 yards for the 7-3 victory. He went on to a successful 11-year professional career.

33 Shaquille O'Neal

O'Neal was the first pick in the 1992 NBA Draft. He was named MVP of the league in 2000 and was a three-time NBA Finals MVP after leading the Los Angeles Lakers to three World Championships. At LSU, O'Neal averaged 21.6 points and 13.6 rebounds for his career, and in 1991, he was named the World's Amateur Athlete of the Year as well as SEC Athlete of the Year and National Player of the Year. In 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

15 Skip Bertman

A legend in the college baseball ranks, Bertman created a dynasty at LSU, guiding the Tigers to five national titles in a 10-year stretch from 1991-2000. He also coached the United States to a bronze medal at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta and was an assistant on the gold medal-winning U.S. squad in Seoul, Korea, in 1988. Bertman retired from coaching following the 2001 season and served as LSU's athletics director for seven years. Bertman was inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006.

40 Rudy Macklin

Rudy Macklin was a two-time basketball All-American selection during his Tiger career from 1976-81 during which time he became LSU's all-time leading rebounder with 1,276 boards and the second-leading scorer in school history behind only the legendary Pete Maravich with 2,080 points. He led the Tigers to two Elite Eight appearances and the 1981 Final Four in Philadelphia. He still holds the school single game rebound record with 32, a mark like some of the great records in any sport that may never be broken.

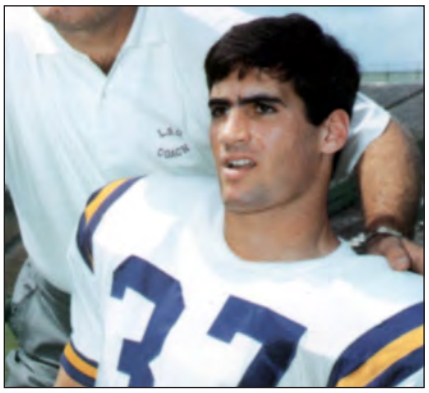
About LSU Retired Jerseys

The retirement of the jerseys of Casanova, McDonald, Macklin and Augustus comes under a new provision of the LSU jersey retirement bylaws that says the retirement of an athlete's jersey in a particular sport does not preclude a current student-athlete in that sport from wearing the jersey number in that or any other sport, subject to the discretion of the head coach. This provision applies only to jerseys retired after January 1, 2007, so the numbers worn by Maravich, Pettit, O'Neal, Cannon and Bertman may never again be worn by future student-athletes in their respective sports. To have a jersey retired at LSU, an athlete must have completed intercollegiate competition for LSU a minimum of five years prior to nomination. Athletes must have demonstrated truly unusual and outstanding accomplishments, exceeding and in addition to all criteria used for Hall of Fame selection. Nominees must have a unanimous vote of support from the Hall of Fame committee.



37 Tommy Casanova

Tommy Casanova is the only three-time All-American in the history of LSU football and is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame. During his Tiger career from 1969-71, Casanova personified versatility for his myriad of talents as he played offense, defense, returned punts and kickoffs. One of just two three-time All-SEC performers at LSU, he played six seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals of the NFL while earning his medical degree.

19 Ben McDonald

Ben McDonald won the prestigious Golden Spikes Award, given annually to the nation's most outstanding player, in 1989 and is a member of the College Baseball Hall of Fame. He led LSU to two College World Series appearances. In 1989, McDonald was named National Player of the Year by Baseball America, The Sporting News and Collegiate Baseball. He was selected by the Baltimore Orioles as the No. 1 pick in the major league draft in 1989 and went on to enjoy a 10-year major league career with the Orioles and the Milwaukee Brewers.

33 Seimone Augustus

Seimone Augustus is the only women's basketball player in school history to earn State Farm Coaches Association All-America honors three times: 2004, 2005 and 2006. Augustus became LSU's first NCAA National Player of the Year and she claimed the honor twice in 2005 and 2006. A 2006 graduate of LSU, Augustus was the 2012 WNBA Finals MVP after winning a world title. She also lead the United States to a gold medal at the 2008 Beijing Olympic Games.

Shaquille O'Neal

A four-time NBA champion and 15-time All-Star, Shaquille O'Neal was one of the most dominant centers in NBA history. He announced his retirement from the NBA in June 2010 after a brilliant Hall of Fame career and has since become a television analyst on TNT. One of the most quotable figures on the planet, O'Neal earned his bachelor's degree from LSU in December 2000. In 2011, he penned his own biography, "Shaq Uncut, My Story," and then received his doctorate degree from Florida's Barry University in May 2012.

Lolo Jones

A three-time national champion hurdler at LSU, Lolo Jones continues to take the sporting world by storm. Jones became an inspirational figure as a two-time World Indoor Champion and the world record holder in the 60-meter hurdles with a time of 7.72. She competed in both the 2008 Beijing and 2012 London Olympic Games and became the first LSU athlete to ever grace the cover of Time Magazine in July 2012. A 2005 graduate of LSU, Jones is now a two-sport star. She was named to the U.S. National Bobsled Team that went on to claim gold at the 2013 FIBT World Championships.

Prominent LSU ALUMNI

2015 Outlook

In the fall, months before the LSU softball team even takes the field against another opponent, head coach Beth Torina and staff decides on the motto or slogan that the team rallies around in the quest for the ultimate goal in reaching the Women's College World Series. Now, in her fourth season at the helm, Torina is back at one, or in this case, "The Power of One", as she leads a group of 13 returning letterwinners and seven newcomers, embarking on the 2015 season with this singular focus in mind.

"'The Power of One' is about a group of women coming together to be one team, with one goal, one singular focus and one destination in mind for the season," Torina said. "It's about unity, getting to know your teammates and being selfless. Essentially, it's about playing for the name on the front of the jersey and not on the back and playing for each other. I think it embodies a lot of what this program stands for."

In 2014, LSU played statistically the second toughest schedule in the nation, with a mostly unproven and untested core of youth in the circle, and in key spots in the lineup both offensively and defensively. Even with that youth, the Tigers produced one of its best offensive seasons in years, while those young hurlers grew into savvy leaders that helped get the team to the regional final in Tucson before suffering defeat in the end.

Although the season ended with a loss, the toughness and grit the team displayed in the Arizona heat provided Torina with the foundation needed going into this new year.

"I think the end of the year showed us a lot about the type of players we have on this team," Torina said. "I think we saw that not only are they talented but they know how to fight. They understand what it takes to be in a big game and have a lot more experience playing in that big game. As hard as it was to lose that game, I think it left a really positive taste in their mouths of understanding what lies ahead for this group."

Included in those 13 returning letterwinners are six total starters from last year's team, which has provided a lot of spirited competition among the young newcomers who will look to make an impact early at various spots throughout the order and in the field.

"I think we've seen a lot of competition in practice this spring, and there are a lot of spots where we've had some good battles going on," Torina said. "I feel like we have all of the pieces of the puzzle, it's just a matter of putting them together. We know the game's not played on paper, so we've got to go out there and earn all of things we're capable of earning.

THE BATTERY

One of Florida's top pitchers in her heyday, Torina knows pitching and has been the beneficiary of quality pitchers in her stable, but 2015 might be her best yet in terms of depth and breadth of scope with losing just SEC All-Tournament selection Ashley Czechner. Instead of three on the roster like last season, Torina will have four aces in the deck, three with collegiate experience and one of the top pitching recruits in the country coming out of high school.

"I think the key to the whole staff is that we have four really different looks and you could see all four used throughout the season," Torina said. "We'll have more of a staff mentality than we've had before, just because they all are so talented and they all bring something completely different to the table."

The leading table setter for the Tigers is sophomore Baylee Corbello. Carrying the load for much of the year in every type of contest, Corbello racked up 35 appearances and 29 starts in her inaugural season, earning 19 wins which was eighth in the Southeastern Conference. Her 24 complete games last year was the most by a freshman in program history, as her 188 strikeouts were the second most in going on to be named third team NFCA All-South Region, second team All-Louisiana and to the SEC All-Freshman team.

"Baylee came off of a great year, and is looking to follow up on that," Torina said. "She's made a lot of good offseason adjustments that I think are going to make her even stronger."

After seeing action sparingly throughout the year, it's hard to call the only pitcher that threw a no-hitter last year one to watch out for, but Kelsee Selman looks poised to have another solid year after helping keep the team alive during last year's postseason run.

Selman appeared in 17 games making eight starts as a freshman as well, earning a 2.86 earned run average to go along with her 6-3 record, claiming a no-hitter among her two shutouts on the year. In 49 innings of work, Selman struck out 59 batters and only allowed 29 hits in the process.

"We were able to see what Kelsee Selman was capable of at the end of last year and just build from there," Torina said. "Everyone knows how talented she is. All we need her to do is go out there and just do what we know she's capable of and she will be successful."

The first newcomer to LSU's circle already has some collegiate experience, but will be looking to extend that past just a handful of games in transfer Carley Hoover. Hoover began her collegiate career at Stanford last year following a Gatorade national high school player of the year prep career, but only saw limited action due to injury in accumulating a 2-0 record with 26 strikeouts and four earned runs allowed in five starts for the Cardinal.

Walljasper, a three-sport athlete at Sierra High School in California, was a prep All-American where she earned 63 wins in the circle, while posting a 0.63 ERA with 895 strikeouts to her credit. The Manteca, California, native issued just 89 walks during her career by earning four league player of the year honors.

Quite possibly a fearsome force in the circle, the two will also look to factor in at the plate as well, with Walljasper hitting .488 and Hoover averaging .500 offensively with a combined 46 home runs.

"Carley brings a very different dynamic to us, as she's very powerful, throws hard and can compete to be one of the best in the country," Torina said. "Allie gives us a completely different look, can change speeds well and is a competitor has won at every level she's played at and we're expecting nothing less from her here."

Returning to their duties behind the plate will be junior Kellsi Kloss and sophomore Sahvanna Jaquish, while adding some depth in the addition of Sydney Loupe to the roster.

Kloss earned the lion's share of time at the dish for LSU, where as a sophomore she started 47 games and played in 50, hitting .278 with 37 hits, including eight doubles and nine home runs with 25 RBI. The Cypress, California, native had a .987 fielding percentage and only committed three errors over the course of the year total.

"Kellsi is the one we call the glue of the team," Torina said. "She's the one that keeps us together, focused and upbeat. She does a great job of being a really strong leader in this program."

A record-setting year led to a host of awards for Jaquish, who earned second team NFCA All-American honors by setting the new program record for home runs in a single-season with 17. The Redlands East standout played in all but two games, leading the team with a .341 batting average and .699 slugging percentage, as she will be a staple in the lineup with her bat and in the field at both catcher and in the infield at times.

"Sahvanna had a great season last year and it's a testament to her work ethic and versatility to play multiple roles on this team," Torina said. "She will have a strong presence in the lineup and push for playing time at catcher, designated player and at third base."

Loupe was a four-year letterwinner at Pope John Paul II on the Northshore, where she amassed a 51-32-1 record during her career. She helped lead the team to two co-district championships, earning all-metro and all-state honors as a senior.

THE INFIELD

The core of the defense in the infield will be looking to replace senior leadership at second and third base, but the other two spots at first base and shortstop are both solidified with the return of juniors Sandra Simmons and Bianka Bell, respectively.

"The mainstays of the infield will be Bianka and Sandra, as both have played virtually every game of their career at this point," Torina said. "They've given us some outstanding play at those positions and I would expect nothing less this season."

Simmons has had a lock on first base since she arrived in Baton Rouge after a stellar prep career, increasing her production offensively to match her defensive strengths. She hit .305 last year with 11 doubles and 37 RBI, while with her glove sported a .994 fielding percentage, as in her two years has one of the highest at LSU so far through her career.

"I think Sandra is arguably the best defender at first base in the Southeastern Conference," Torina said. "I think she makes it a really athletic position and does some special things there because she's so versatile."

Another option at first base for the Tigers is senior utility player Kailey McCasland, who played in 13 games in her junior season in 2014, as her .333 average in those games will provide an option at the designated player spot as well as in key pinch hitting roles.

"Kailey is great under pressure, so we plan on utilizing her in a lot in pinch hitting roles and see her fighting for a spot at the DP spot," Torina said.

After going through some early season struggles, Bell regrouped in a big way and turned the season on its ear offensively by finishing second on the team with a .337 batting average, with 60 hits, 11 doubles, a triple and 14 home runs. She started all 62 games in being named first team NFCA All-South Region, stealing seven bases and producing a .468 on-base percentage which led the team.

"Bianka is a player that is well respected throughout the SEC because of what she's capable of," Torina said. "I think she's in a really good spot mentally heading into the year and I think a really nice year."

The first opening in the infield will be a replacement for departed second base occupant Allison Falcon, who started 61 of the team's 62 games a year ago, hitting .312. The other comes at the other corner, as Tammy Wray and her glove transition into a student coaching role after starting 55 games and hitting .308 in 2014.

One player vying for the spot at second is a seasoned veteran who started as a freshman on a team that went to the Women's College World series in Dylan Supak. Supak, now in her senior year, played in 12 games last year, seeing time as both a pinch hitter and pinch runner, as some of her clutch moments off the bench last year could lead to an increased load in 2015.

"Dylan is a player with a lot of experience from the time she was a freshman on the WCWS team, and has worked hard to make herself a presence this season who we could see being used at spots throughout the year," Torina said.

Playing in 33 games and starting 19 as a freshman making her return in Constance Quinn, who also as a key reserve, came on to hit .317 at the plate with 20 hits, four doubles and three home runs, none bigger than her shot that helped spark a comeback against Georgia last season.

"Constance is possibly the most athletic player on the team," Torina said. "She covers so much ground and can make a spectacular play at any moment, can hit for power and can run so she's a very valuable asset to the group."

Behind Quinn, with the skill set to play any one of three positions in the infield is freshman Sydney Bourg from Slidell. Bourg, a Northshore High School alum, hit .747 for her career while being a multiple all-state selection, even earning most valuable player honors for the East squad in the LHSCA softball game.

"Sydney's a really athletic player, who honestly could play at second, third or short, she just has that potential," Torina said. "She would do anything we ask her to do, even run through a brick wall for this program, so she's someone you're going to see throughout the infield."

The options at third base begin with Sahvanna Jaquish, who was able to earn some time in the infield last season at spots, along with newcomer transfer Jenna Kreamer.

Kreamer, a Louisiana product out of Evangel Christian Academy in Shreveport, started her collegiate career at Washington, playing on a Women's College World Series team there, before transferring to Louisiana-Lafayette and coming to LSU where she sat out last season. In high school, Kreamer set the school record for doubles, triples, home runs and RBI, and was second in runs scored with 509.

"Jenna has played third base her whole life, and is the most natural at that position," Torina said. "She understands that position and knows what it takes to be there, and has done it at the highest level at different places so we know what type of player we have in her."

THE OUTFIELD

Quick and speedy outfielders has been a hallmark for LSU as a program, as 2015 looks to be no different in that regard with the return of senior A.J. Andrews and Bailey Landry leading the charge and a bevy of other options to fortify arguably the deepest area for the Tigers in the coming year.

Andrews leads off the way she's done for the past two seasons during her All-American career, as last year's leader in hits will look to end her career on a high note out in centerfield. Andrews hit .329 last year, topping out in the low .400's at one point, earning 68 hits, with six triples and stealing 38 bases which was among the top ten in the nation.

"A.J. is the captain of the outfield and the true leader of the team," Torina said. "She drives this team and pushes them to new heights by her work ethic on the field. She does amazing things as a leadoff hitter and is one of the best base stealers I've ever been around."

Putting up strong numbers offensively toward the end of last season was SEC All-Freshman Landry, who in 49 games hit .368 with four doubles, three home runs and 17 RBI. A slapper in the same vein as Andrews, Landry was also a danger on the bases, swiping seven bags on nine attempts, while having the speed to play on the edge in right field.

"Bailey is just a special offensive player, and we are so lucky to have her here at LSU," Torina said. "She's got so many weapons at the plate and can hit at the top or bottom of the lineup and make a difference in so many different spots for us."

The open spot for the Tigers comes out it left field, filling the spot of Jacee Blades who started all but one game for the team as a senior last season. However, LSU has no shortage of options with a string of returners and newcomers that can help fill the role.

Although she only played in 15 games and had 13 at-bats, Alayna Falcon made most of them count hitting .462 with six hits and six RBI.

"Alayna is very solid in the outfield and has the best arm on the team," Torina said. "She's somebody that's going to see some chances offensively at the plate, especially after the work she's put in during the offseason."

Other returners who could also find their way out to left include Dylan Supak and Layna Savoie, who played in 12 games last year for LSU as a pinch runner and was a perfect 3-for-3 in stolen bases.

Another of the highly ranked recruits brought in by Torina is Emily Griggs who hails from Wichita, Kansas. Griggs, who along with Walljasper were named to the USA Women's Softball Junior National Team over the winter break, hit .616 at the plate during her All-American prep career, with 52 stolen bases.

"After watching Emily play, the better the competition no matter in what area, her play gets better as it goes up," Torina said. "She plays hard, is fun to watch and I think our fans are really going to enjoy watching her compete."

The final piece to the outfield roster is another talented and speedy freshman in Taylor Lockwood. Just down the road from nearby Walker, Lockwood won the NFCA Golden Shoe for the top base stealer in high school, hitting .460 lifetime with an on-base percentage of .556.

BETH TORINA

HEAD COACH

8TH SEASON OVERALL • 4TH SEASON AT LSU

Beth Torina heads into her fourth season at the helm of the LSU softball program after she returned the Tigers to national prominence with a pair of 40-win seasons and a trip to the a 2012 Women's College World Series already to her credit in her short time in Baton Rouge.

The 2012 WCWS berth was the program's third overall appearance on college softball's biggest stage and program's first since 2004. The Tigers are only one of three teams since the current regional/super regional format that was adopted in 2005 to knock off a pair of seeded teams in No. 8 Texas A&M and No. 9 Missouri on the road to Oklahoma City.

Torina's third year at the helm proved to be defining in many ways, as the 2013 squad incorporated an influx of youthful talent into an already experienced squad which led to 38 wins and a trip to the NCAA Tucson Regional final, LSU's eighth consecutive trip to the postseason which is now a new program record. The Tigers played the second toughest schedule in the country, with 19 wins against teams ranked in the top 25 of the RPI.

The Tigers finished the SEC slate in the tie for sixth place after going 13-11 in the now division-less conference, earning a win in the SEC tournament for the first time since the 2010 season before being sent to Arizona to grab wins against the Wildcats, Louisville and Boston.

Sahvanna Jaquish earned NFCA All-American honors for her outstanding freshman campaign, becoming the fifth player in program history named to the second team list. It was the fifth consecutive year an LSU player has been named to one of the three lists after belting a single-season program record 17 home runs and 55 RBI.

Along with being named to the NFCA All-South Region first team along with Bianka Bell, Jaquish was one of four players to earn All-SEC honors as she was first team, while A.J. Andrews was placed on the second team. Baylee Corbello and Bailey Landry were also selected to the SEC All-Freshman team.

LSU raced out to a 14-1 start in 2013 which was the program's best start to a season since 2007. Playing one of the nation's toughest schedules, the Tigers claimed 12 victories over Top 25 opponents and spent a majority of the season ranked inside the nation's Top 15. It was the LSU's highest win total over ranked opponents dating back to the 2006 season.

LSU returned to the top of the SEC's Western Division and clinched the program's ninth division crown with a three-game sweep over Alabama that featured three one-run victories. The final two games of the series were played in-front of the two-highest crowds in Tiger Park history.

A.J. Andrews and Rachele Fico earned NFCA All-American accolades. The last time LSU had two players garner Louisville Slugger/National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) All-American status during the same season was 2007.

For Fico, she took home NFCA All-American First-Team honors for the second straight season which enabled her to join Ashlee Ducote and Britni Sneed as the only two NFCA All-American First-Team selections in program history. She was a USA Softball Top 25 Player of the Year finalist, Senior Class Award Top 10 finalists and picked up the NFCA's National Player of the Week award on April 30 after two wins during LSU's sweep of Alabama.

Fico's 24 wins in the circle was the highest total for a LSU pitcher since Dani

Head Coach Beth Torina

Hofer tallied 24 wins in 2007. She twirled 10 shutouts to rank tied for 10th nationally. The right-hander racked up 232 strikeouts and matched the SEC's single-game record held by Tennessee's Monica Abbott with 22 Ks against Mississippi State.

LSU had five players secure All-SEC accolades with Andrews (First Team), Jacee Blades (Second Team), Bianka Bell (Second Team, Freshmen Team), Fico (Second Team, Team) and Kellsi Kloss (Freshmen Team). Bell became the second player in LSU history to collect the SEC's Freshman of the Year award.

Andrews registered a .353 batting average on 71 hits, the program's highest totals since Kirsten Shortridge's All-American campaign in 2010. Bell connected for 12 home runs, tied for third-most in program history for a single season.

In 2012, Torina guided the LSU pitching staff to a stifling 1.58 staff ERA which tied for second-lowest in the SEC. The 1-2 punch of Rachele Fico and Brittany Mack amassed 36 of LSU's 40 victories during 2012 in the circle.

Fico garnered 20 victories, a stout 1.12 ERA, racked up 221 strikeouts, limited opponents to a .183 batting average and tossed 13 shutouts over 230.1 innings. Her 1.12 ERA and 13 shutouts were fourth and fifth, respectively, in the NCAA rankings.
Mack created and championed the "Geaux Play" program where new or gently used sports equipment was donated at home games to benefit the Miracle League Association at Cypress Mounds. She was named a Lowe's Senior Class Award Top 30 Finalist and the SEC's Co-Scholar Athlete of the Year, the first time a LSU softball player has received that award.

Fico and Mack finished their careers as two of LSU's most decorated hurlers. The duo combined for 134 victories and 1,399 strikeouts during their careers. They are two of the six pitchers in program history to account for 600-plus Ks.

Both Mack (2012) and Fico (2013) went onto become the first overall draft picks in the National Pro Fastpitch (NPF) League during consecutive years. Mack played her first season with the USSSA Florida Pride under Torina before the pair was reunited with the Akron Racers in 2013.

Torina spent three seasons with the Pride as an assistant coach (2010) followed by a two-year run as head coach (2011-12). During her tenure, the organization captured the 2012 Ringer Cup trophy awarded to the league's regular season champion and won the 2010 NPF championship. The Pride roster featured multiple Olympians which includes ESPN softball analyst Jessica Mendoza along with Caitlin Lowe and Natasha Watley.

Before joining the LSU program in June 2011, Torina took Florida International of the Sun Belt Conference to new heights. The two-time SBC Coach of the Year led the Golden Panthers to a 129-111 record in four seasons and directed FIU to its first NCAA Tournament victory in 2010.

The 2010 campaign saw the Golden Panthers sweep the SBC postseason awards as Kasey Barrett was the league's Pitcher of the Year, Ashley McClain was tabbed Player of the Year and Brie Rojas garnered Freshman of the Year status.

Individually, Torina coached 10 players to 14 All-SBC selections sparked by Jessy Alfonso and McClain, who have picked up All-SBC First-Team honors during each of the last two seasons. McClain also has collected 2010 and 2011 NFCA All-South Region First-Team accolades.

Torina spent five seasons as the pitching coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Houston from 2003-07. The Cougars claimed the 2007 Conference USA regular season and tournament titles. One of her most prized recruits, Angel Shamblin, went on to become a two-time C-USA Pitcher of the Year, an NFCA All-South Region selection and a 2008 NFCA All-American. In addition to Shamblin, Torina saw seven UH hurlers receive All-Conference USA accolades during her tenure.

Torina began her coaching career as an assistant coach at Stetson University from 2000-02, leaving her mark on the Hatters' softball program after helping lead the 2001 squad to a share of the regular season Atlantic Sun Conference championship. Torina's pitchers set a quartet of school records, including wins (45), shutouts (20), strikeouts (385) and strikeouts per seven innings (6.70).

Torina earned her B.S. in health sciences and occupational therapy from Florida in 2000. During her playing career with the Gators, she was a member of the 1998 Southeastern Conference regular season championship team as the squad's top pitcher. She posted 60 career wins, which currently ranks tied for fourth in the UF record book. In the classroom, Torina was a GTE Academic All-America and a finalist for the 2000 H. Boyd McWhorter SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Torina has established an active community service function within the softball program as the Tigers regularly visit hospitals and schools in the Baton Rouge area. She is personally involved in several philanthropic causes highlighted by the program's annual "Strikeout Ovarian Cancer" event where LSU wears teal jerseys to celebrate survivors and support the cause of spreading ovarian cancer awareness. Torina's mother, Betty Dieter, is a six-year ovarian cancer survivor.

In 2012, the inaugural "Geaux Teal Ovarian Cancer Walk" was added to the event. The walk began at Tiger Park and rose close to $15,000 for ovarian cancer research. Torina serves on a committee of women from Baton Rouge to New Orleans with connections to ovarian cancer either as a survivor or lost a family member to the deadly disease. The group promoted "Ovarian Cancer Awareness Month" and received a proclamation from Governor Bobby Jindal during September 2013.

Torina and her husband, Nick, were married in January 2010. The couple has two daughters Taryn and Tatum and lives in Baton Rouge.

HOWARD DOBSON

ASSISTANT COACH

4TH SEASON AT LSU

Howard Dobson enters his fourth season as an assistant coach at LSU. He serves as the program's hitting coach and assists with recruiting.

Since joining the staff three years ago, Dobson has helped lead a resurgence of the Tiger offense in a big way, as the 2014 team earned the second highest team batting average in program history at .314, while the squad's 65 home runs were the most in a single year as a group in program history. LSU turned in a 65-point improvement in batting average from the 2012 to 2013 season, improving it another 30 points to jump from .220 to .314 during that span.

Sahvanna Jaquish was the 16th player in program history to become an NFCA All-American, as she was one of seven players to finish the season with a batting average of .300 or better. Jaquish, along with Bianka Bell (NFCA All-South Region first team), A.J. Andrews (All-SEC Second Team, NFCA All-South Region second team), Allison Falcon (NFCA All-South Region second team), Bailey Landry, Tammy Wray and Sandra Simmons each achieved this feat.

Dobson returned to the Women's College World Series for the third time in his coaching career with the Tigers during the 2012 season. Ashley Langoni joined former All-American Leslie Klein (2006) and Rachel Mitchell (2008) as the only players to capture the program's triple crown during a single season.

The Tigers had five players collect over a .300 batting average which included All-SEC honorees A.J. Andrews (first team), Bianka Bell (second team) and Jacee Blades (second team). Andrews was the 15th player in program history to notch NFCA All-America status, while Bell garnered the SEC's Freshman of the Year award after her 12 homers tied for third-most in program history for a single season.

Dobson has been heavily involved with USA Softball over the last three summers. He served as an assistant coach on the USA Softball Elite Team in 2012 and the USA Softball Women's National Team in 2013. He traveled with Team USA to the World Cup of Softball and the Canadian Open and returned as an assistant coach for the senior national team in the summer of 2014.

Dobson spent the previous four seasons as the head coach of Southern Miss. During his tenure with the Golden Eagles, he coached seven All-Conference USA performers highlighted by Megan Hill. The four-time All-Conference USA pick set eight offensive program records, including hits (205), RBIs (151), runs scored (148), home runs (48) and total bases (398). She also garnered NFCA All-Midwest First-Team accolades, the program's first recipient since the 2000 season.

Prior to Southern Miss, Dobson served as an assistant coach at Oklahoma for five seasons. He helped the Sooners continue to develop their reputation as not only a Big 12 offensive powerhouse but a national offensive juggernaut.

OU topped the Big 12 in scoring and also ranked among the league's top two in batting average during all five of his seasons in Norman. The Sooners had seven players secure NFCA All-American honors in addition to 15 NFCA All-Midwest Region selections and 20 All-Big 12 honorees. Norrele Dickson, Heather Scaglione and Kristin Vesely racked up multiple NFCA All-America selections under Dobson.

Dobson played an instrumental role as OU made a pair of trips to the Women's College World Series trips in 2003 and 2004. The Sooners also made four NCAA Super Regional runs (2003, 2004, 2005, 2007) during their five consecutive trips to the postseason sparked by a 55-win campaign in 2007, which is tied for third in the OU record books.

Before Oklahoma, Dobson contributed to the establishment of Houston's softball program in 2000. The Orange, Texas, native had players notch 10 All-Conference USA accolades in two seasons fueled by Kristen Glowacz's 2002 C-USA Freshman of the Year award. The 2002 Cougars paced C-USA in hits (480), runs scored (279), slugging percentage (.448), RBIs (244) and home runs (47).

Dobson began his coaching career in the Pelican State with stops at Southeastern Louisiana, McNeese State and Barbe High School in Lake Charles. He directed his team at Barbe to a 5A state championship and gained valuable experience working at collegiate skills camps along with coaching on the international level. In the summer of 1999, his international team won the German Open.

A former all-conference performer at Panola College in Carthage, Texas, Dobson went on to finish his collegiate baseball career at McNeese State where he graduated with a degree in health and human performance and English in 1997.

Dobson and his wife, Katharine, have a nine-year-old son Trip. They live in Baton Rouge.

LINDSAY LEFTWICH

ASSISTANT COACH

4TH SEASON AT LSU

Lindsay Leftwich embarks on her fourth season as an assistant coach at LSU. She is involved with all aspects of the program which include defense, hitting, recruiting, video scouting and camps.

The former Northwestern State standout has been with Beth Torina for every step of her six-year head coaching career which includes LSU's run to the 2012 Women's College World Series.

In 2014 the team produced its highest fielding percentage under Leftwich, finishing in the top five in the league with a .970 mark. Under her watch, six different players posted defensive averages above led by Sandra Simons who led the team with a .994 average with 309 putouts.

LSU improved its fielding percentage to a .968 ratio to rank fourth on the SEC leaderboard during the 2013 season. Sandra Simmons tallied 306 putouts, the sixth-most by a position player in program history. She also amassed a .991 fielding clip which sits in fifth place on LSU's all-time list.

The Tigers came away with a .964 team fielding percentage in 2012, the fourth-best defensive clip in the SEC. Ashley Langoni totaled 74 putouts and four assists from her left field post as an All-SEC Defensive Team pick. LSU's catching tandem of Morgan Russell and Lauren Houston gunned down a combined 21 base runners attempting to steal. The total equaled the program's second-highest single season mark.

Before coming to LSU, Leftwich spent four seasons as Torina's top assistant at Florida International. The Golden Panthers collected 14 All-Sun Belt selections sparked by a sweep of the league's 2010 postseason awards where Kasey Barrett picked up the SBC's Pitcher of the Year, Ashley McClain notched SBC Player of the Year and Brie Rojas secured SBC Freshman of the Year. McClain also has come away with National Fastpitch Coaches Association [NFCA] All-South Region First-Team honors in 2010 and 2011.

FIU posted a 38-21 record and claimed the program's second-ever NCAA Tournament bid and first-ever NCAA Tournament victory in 2010. The Golden Panthers improved their win total during three of her four seasons, and she aided Torina to a pair of SBC Coach of the Year awards.

Prior to FIU, Leftwich served as a graduate assistant at New Mexico. She was in charge of softball operations and assisted with daily coaching duties during the 2007 season. In 2006, Leftwich worked as the pitching coach at Wichita State where she helped the Shockers compile a 35-23 record.

Leftwich, a native of Houston, Texas, opened her coaching career as a student assistant at Northwestern State. She aided in coaching the offense and catchers in addition to playing an instrumental role in recruiting, fundraising, alumni relations and camps.

Leftwich enjoyed a three-year playing career with the Demons highlighted by NFCA All-Southeast Region, All-Southland Conference and All-Louisiana Second-Team selections in 2002.

NSU racked up a program-record 45 victories en route to a NCAA Tournament berth during the 2002 campaign. Leftwich drove home 44 RBIs, which are currently tied for third-most in program history for a single season, while her 123 assists on the infield paced the Southland Conference.

During her career, Leftwich added five Southland Conference along with a pair of Louisiana Sports Writers Association [LSWA] Hitter of the Week awards. She finished her career ranked fifth in both home runs and RBIs at NSU after a back injury held her out of her senior season.

An excellent student-athlete, Leftwich garnered numerous academic accolades, including Verizon Academic All-District Team recognition in 2002 and 2004 and NFCA Scholar Athlete recognition from 2001-04. In 2005, she earned a bachelor's degree in psychology and a minor in art and substance abuse prevention.

VOLUNTEER COACH
KARA DILL
1ST SEASON AT LSU

Kara Dill enters her first season as a volunteer assistant coach at LSU after spending the previous five years at Kentucky as both a student-athlete and volunteer assistant coach for the Wildcats. Dill will assist in all aspects of the program, with a primary focus on the Tigers' slap hitters.

The LaGrange, Ohio, native is coming off of stint in Lexington that went unrivaled in the program's existence which included two NCAA Super Regional berths and the school's first trip to the Women's College World Series this past summer after amassing 50 wins.

Dill was one of the most feared leadoff hitters in the Southeastern Conference while at UK, kicking off her career with a 15-game hitting streak as a freshman en route to an inaugural campaign that saw her earn 71 which was the fifth most for any Kentucky player in a single-season. By the time she ended her career, she finished eighth in hits with 201, sixth in stolen bases with 57, fifth in batting average at .330 and seventh in runs scored with 119 to go along with two All-SEC selections.

The consummate student-athlete, Dill was able to graduate from Kentucky with her bachelor's degree three semesters early, eventually completing her masters while concluding her stellar career on the diamond. After her senior year, where she led the team in batting average, Dill was named to the SEC Community Service Team for her work with various groups, as well as being a CoSIDA Capitol One Academic All-District selection.

While at Kentucky, Dill was named to the Frank G. Ham Society of Character, which annually honors Kentucky Wildcats who have shown an extraordinary commitment to academic excellence, athletic participation, personal development, career preparation and serving as a role model. She was also up for the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award, which recognizes student-athletes who utilize their complete athletic eligibility while honoring the four core attributes of the award in community, classroom, character and competition.

Dill resides in Baton Rouge.

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS
QUINLAN DUHON
6TH SEASON AT LSU

Quinlan Duhon moves into her sixth season as the director of operations for the LSU softball program after her exceptional four-year career from 2005-08. She also served as a student marketing assistant during the 2008-09 academic year following her playing career.

Duhon is responsible for handling all the behind-the-scenes aspects of the softball program which earned its third trip to the Women's College World Series in 2012. Her responsibilities include team travel, supporting camp operations, supervising player academic progress, ordering and distributing of equipment, organizing recruiting functions and campus visits, as well as serving as the program's liaison to the Diamond Backers Booster Club. She also oversees a staff of three student managers.

Duhon has been instrumental in the direction and growth of the team's footprint in the Baton Rouge community by coordinating the season ticket delivery program, assisting in the development of the program's "Strikeout Ovarian Cancer" event to raise awareness for ovarian cancer and being involved in the scheduling of the team's philanthropy projects.

Duhon has played a major role in keeping Tiger Park as the nation's state-of-the-art softball facility. The team's clubhouse received a complete graphics makeover following its 2012 WCWS run. Updated graphics also were installed on the ballpark's concourse and party deck.

On gameday, Duhon manages the coaching staff's T2 motion video file system from the press box and handles pregame motivational video pieces for the Tigers.

During her playing career, Duhon was a part of three NCAA Regional teams highlighted by the 2006 and 2007 Super Regional squads. She scored the walk-off, game-winning run in a 5-4 triumph over Louisiana-Lafayette in the 2006 NCAA Regional championship game.

LSU spent the duration of the 2007 season in the nation's Top 10 and compiled an impressive 55-12 record. The Tigers tallied series victories over both No. 1 Tennessee and No. 2 Alabama during the regular season to win its fourth SEC Western Division crown and fourth SEC Tournament title during the Yvette Girouard era.

Duhon had an outstanding postseason being named to both the NCAA Palo Alto Regional and Tempe Super Regional All-Tournament teams. She cranked three home runs in NCAA play, including a two-run shot as part of a 3-2 win against Cal State Northridge in the NCAA Regional opening round.

As one of three captains for the 2008 team, Duhon posted career-bests in batting average (.333), hits (54), home runs (11), RBIs (38), on-base (.424) and slugging percentage (.605) en route to an All-SEC and All-Louisiana Second-Team honors.

Duhon finished her LSU career ranked third belting 30 career home runs and is listed among the school's Top 10 in walks (68), RBIs (128), total bases (300) and sacrifice flies (13). She is one of only 11 players in program history to score over 100 runs and post over 150 career hits. The Youngsville native also was a four-time SEC Academic Honor Roll selection.

Duhon earned her bachelor's degree in general business from LSU 2008 and her master's degree in sports management in December 2013. She lives in Baton Rouge.

CLYDE VERDIN

Associate SID/Softball Contact

Clyde Verdin enters his second season as an Associate Sports Information Director at LSU. He serves as the media relations contact for the Tiger softball and volleyball teams in addition to promoting LSU's community service efforts.

In his first year, Verdin helped publicized an All-American in both sports, including first team selection Briana Holman in volleyball and second team selection Sahvanna Jaquish in 2014. Among those have been seven All-SEC selections, along with a host of other state and national accolades.

Verdin comes to LSU from Nicholls State University where he was the Director of Media Relations, overseeing the communications efforts for the Division I institution's 14 intercollegiate sports. Verdin was the primary contact for men's basketball, baseball, women's soccer, women's volleyball, men's and women's cross country, women's track and field and men's golf. While there he publcized multiple first team All-Southland Conference honorees, including the first player of the year for the women's soccer program and student-athlete of the year in women's track and field history.

Prior to Nicholls, Verdin was a Basketball Communications Intern for the New Orleans Hornets (now Pelicans) during the 2010-11 NBA season. While with the Hornets he assisted with all communications efforts for the franchise, which included both professional and community service efforts, while also managing both practice and gameday communications. Duties included setting up media areas for practice and gameday, while also writing for Hornets.com and the gameday program. While there he also assisted with the Allstate Sugar Bowl, NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament and NFL Kickoff Weekend. That season, the PR staff was considered one of the top five in the league.

Verdin spent more than a year as an intern at the University of Missouri, serving as contact for the track and field teams and the swimming and diving teams.

Verdin graduated from Nicholls State University with a Bachelor of Arts in Mass Communications with a concentration in Broadcast Journalism. While there he worked in the athletic department serving in various roles.

MELISSA MOORE SEAL

Associate Strength & Conditioning Coordinator

Melissa Moore, one of the nation's top strength and conditioning coordinators, enters her eighth season at LSU working with the Tiger softball team.

Moore, a native of Enon, La., also coordinates the strength and conditioning of LSU women's basketball team, women's tennis team and assists with the Tiger football program.

Moore came to LSU after stints at Georgia Tech and Elon as an assistant strength & conditioning coach. She spent two years at Georgia Tech working with Yellow Jackets' softball and women's tennis programs after a brief stint working with Elon's baseball, men's and women's soccer, women's basketball and track teams.

A graduate of Southern Miss, Moore spent two years working with the football, baseball, men's and women's basketball, soccer, tennis, softball and volleyball programs while working toward her master's degree.

CAROLE WALKER

Associate Director CCACSA & Academic Advisor

Carole Walker serves as a Senior Associate Director in the Cox Communications Center for Student-Athletes and the coordinator for continuing eligibility for all LSU student-athletes. Walker also oversees new student-athlete orientation, scholarship textbook distribution and recruitment as well as supervises two associate directors and an academic advisor.

Walker is the team academic advisor for LSU's women's basketball, soccer and softball programs in addition to coordinating the Summer Academic Success Program for new student-athletes.

Under her supervision, Dee Dee Henderson represented softball as an Academic All-America Third-Team selection in 2007. Former All-American Brittany Mack garnered two Capital One Academic All-District VI honors, and Alex Boulet was the recipient of the NCAA Elite 89 Award awarded to the student-athlete with the highest GPA at the 2012 Women's College World Series.

Prior to LSU, Walker served as an Athletic Academic Advisor at South Alabama before becoming an Athletic Academic Services Coordinator at Miami.

Walker graduated from Shaw University with a Bachelor's of Science in Business Administration and earned her Master's of Education in Higher Education Administration at Auburn. She was a member of the 2005-06 inaugural class for the NCAA Leadership Institute Ethnic Minority Females in addition to being awarded National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics (N4A) Professional Promise Award in 2002.

PAMELA WORKMAN

Associate Athletic Trainer

Pamela Workman returns to her Alma Mater and enters her second season serving as an Associate Athletic Trainer for the LSU softball program.

Workman, a native of Opelousas, La., spent five seasons as an Assistant Athletic Trainer at Southern Miss. There, she spent four seasons with the baseball program which included a trip to the 2009 College World Series and a quartet of NCAA Regionals appearances. She also worked with the football, women's golf, cheer and dance programs during her time with the Golden Eagles.

Prior to joining USM's full-time athletic training program, she served as a graduate assistant working extensively with the football program. The Golden Eagles appeared in back-to-back bowl games and the 2006 Conference USA Championship Game.

Workman received her bachelor's degree in kinesiology from LSU in 2005. Two years later, she completed work on her master's degree in sport administration from Southern Miss.

Workman is certified and a current member of the National Athletic Trainers Association along with the Southeast Athletic Trainers Association.

LOCKED IN: TIGERS EXTEND POSTSEASON STREAK

Just four games over .500 and sitting at 2-7 in the Southeastern Conference after a sweep at the hands of seventh-ranked Alabama on the road, the LSU softball team stood at a crossroads as a mostly young, but talented, squad faced the prospect of missing both the SEC and NCAA tournament. Instead, the Tigers rallied in a huge way, knocking off some heavily ranked foes, bullying its way to winning 19 of its final 28 games of the season to extend its record streak in both to finish with 38 wins in 2014.

After snapping a five-game losing skid with a 9-0 win over Nicholls, LSU returned to conference action with the tall task of taking on second-ranked Tennessee and unbeaten hurler Ellen Renfroe at home in Tiger Park. Down one with three outs left, A.J. Andrews led off a series of three hits that would propel the team to victory as Sahvanna Jaquish would tie the game up at 4-4 before a walk-off three-run bomb by Bianka Bell gave the team a 7-4 win over the Lady Vols.

"That has to be one of my favorite wins here since I've been the coach at LSU," Beth Torina said. "A lot of things we have struggled with this season came together and resulted in what we are trying to do every day right there. The kid who has had trouble scoring people steps up and gets the big hit that she is capable of hitting and we

JAQUISH PUTS TOGETHER ALL-AMERICAN FRESHMAN SEASON

In her very first season at LSU, freshman Sahvanna Jaquish became the 16th player in program history to earn All-America status, earning a spot on the second team as selected by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association.

The Highland, California's selection to the team is the fifth-straight pick for an LSU player, and the seventh to make either the first, second or third team list since 2009. She is the fifth player to make the second team cut, and the first to earn the nod at the designated player/utility position.

Playing in all but two of the team's games this year, Jaquish put together one of the best freshman seasons in program history as she completed the 2014 campaign hitting .341 for the Tigers, the highest for everyday starters, in 60 games while seeing time as catcher with a .985 fielding percentage. Her team-leading 17 home runs are now a single-season program record at LSU, while her 55 RBI are the second-most for a Tiger freshman.

Jaquish's slugging percentage of .699 is the second-highest ever for any LSU player in a single year, much less one in their first year in Baton Rouge, as she also pounded out nine doubles and a triple to go along with her .445 on-base percentage which was second on the team. In the postseason alone, Jaquish hit .438 with four home runs and nine RBI, while slugging 1.250 and getting walked 10 times for a .667 on-base percentage.

"Sahvanna had such an amazing season, and is very deserving of this honor," head coach Beth Torina said. "What she was able to come in and do in her first year obviously made her a strong candidate, and I'm excited to see what the future holds for her here at LSU."

CORBELLO PITCHES WAY TO FRESHMAN RECORDS

Highly touted coming out of high school in nearby Lake Charles, pitcher Baylee Corbello took on the load of pitching against some of the toughest teams in the country in her first collegiate season and ended the year setting many numerous records and collecting a good amount of accolades along the way.

Corbello led the pitching staff with 19 wins, 24 complete games, six shutouts, 199.1 innings pitched and 188 strikeouts in 2014, earning the freshman record for the most complete games by a freshman, while its the third-most wins and second-most strikeouts by a freshman hurler.

Among her litany of awards she earned, the Sam Houston product was named the first SEC Freshman of the Week and was twice honored by the LSWA as their Pitcher of the Week. Along with being named to the SEC's All-Freshman Team, third team NFCA All-South Region, and second team All-Louisiana, the most prestigious was being a finalist for the inaugural NFCA DI National Freshman of the Year Award.

"No matter the situation, Baylee has taken every challenge we've given her and exceeded our expectations," Beth Torina said. "She's gone up against some of the best teams in the country, and has kept us in a lot of games, and I know she is going to have a bright future."

know she is capable of hitting. It was a really fun win for this team."

LSU took its first conference series that very next day by racing out to a big lead and defeating UT 8-4, the first of five consecutive series' the Tigers would own over the latter portion of the season as they treated every game as a must-win.

"It's a confidence booster going back to back days with timely hitting," Allison Falcon said. "Last night, we had to start it. In that last inning, I was confident in every batter who came up. It is a really good feeling."

After looking listless in a 6-1 loss to No. 13 Georgia in the series opener the very next week, the Tigers turned the tables on the Bulldogs in a big way the very next night and seized the momentum for the rest of the weekend. Already down three, a three-run home run from Constance Quinn in a four-run sixth seemed to be enough until a UGA run in the top half of the seventh knotted the game at 4-4.

With Tammy Wray on first in the eighth, senior Jacee Blades ripped a shot down the right field line that rolled into the deep corner of foul territory allowing her fellow senior to rumble all the way home for the game-winning run on a stand-up triple to pull it out 5-4.

"A couple innings before my hit, the ball went under my glove. I felt like it was my fault that we were even in extra innings," Blades said. "I knew I was going to do whatever I possibly could to keep my team in it. I wasn't going to back down because everyone worked so hard tonight. Even if I were to just move Tammy Wray to second base, that is what I would have done. I just knew to put the ball to that side, and it played in my favor today."

The Tigers took the series the next day in a 13-11 slugfest that lasted only six innings to clinch their second consecutive league series.

Capping a week-long road trip at South Carolina, LSU showed little signs of jetlag, scoring a combined 27 runs in the first two days to claim the series over the Gamecocks. The team used that same thought process the next weekend in Oxford, scoring 26 total runs in a the team's first sweep of the year at Ole Miss, which was sandwiched between the team's longest winning streak which ended up being seven games.

In the series finale against Mississippi State, the Tigers were playing for seeding and to maintain its hold in the SEC tournament race, getting pushed to the brink in the opener against the Bulldogs as a two-run Bell home run made it a 6-5 advantage, a lead the team would hold on to. The next day was all LSU as the squad earned an 8-0 win in six innings to close the year with another series win.

"Having everyone, one through nine, hitting through the lineup is a great part of the game," Bell said. "It will definitely carry us into the SEC tournament and even to regionals."

Back in South Carolina for the league's tournament, LSU put on a clinic against Missouri, winning 6-0 to earn the group's first win in the SEC tournament since 2010. The team nearly advanced to the tournament final the next day, dropping a heartbreaker to Kentucky in nine innings as both Ashley Czechner and Bailey Landry were named to the SEC All-Tournament Team.

With a solid resume and the second-toughest schedule in the country, LSU was selected for an at-large berth in the NCAA's and sent west for the Tucson Regional against Arizona, Boston University and Louisville. The Tigers opened with a 13-9 win over Louisivlle that Friday, setting up a showdown with Arizona for a spot in the regional final. Although the Tigers fell 9-8, they were able to put a dent in the Wildcat armor by matching the home side blow-for-blow.

Struggling and trailing the upstart Terriers in the final inning, LSU exploded for seven runs in the seventh, as Jaquish hit a three-run home run to notch the single-season record with her 15th bomb of the year.

"Honestly at that point I just wanted to do whatever I could to help the team," Jaquish said. "I never once thought we were going to lose, and I wanted to do whatever I could for the seniors to keep this season going."

On the final day, LSU mustered everything it had left in the tank, led by Baylee Corbello who allowed just one run as the Tigers defeated the Wildcats 5-1 to force the winner-take-all game right after. Unfortunately, Arizona's bats proved to be too much and the Tigers couldn't keep pace, ending the season in Tucson.

"A lot of credit to Arizona and their team throughout this weekend, and credit to my guys for battling through everything they had to this weekend," Torina said. "We've done some unbelievable things this year, and I know the future is bright with this group."

Tigers Celebrate 'Strikeout Ovarian Cancer' with 3rd Win

LSU wore teal jerseys for the third straight season in support of Ovarian Cancer awareness, and the Tigers came away with a thrilling victory over No. 13 Georgia on April 12.

Before the game, the program recognized survivors of the disease on the field during a special ceremony. Torina's mother, Betty Dieter, is an Ovarian Cancer survivor. The team also held its second-annual Teal Walk earlier that day which featured over 400 participants.

"The inaugural Geaux Teal Walk was such a success last year, and because of it we were able to help so many women in the Baton Rouge community that are survivors of this cancer, or those who are continuing to receive treatment for this disease," Torina said. ""It is such a cool game because you have the survivors or the family members who have lost loved ones to cancer come out, and it's a chance for us to honor these women that don't have a place to be honored."

Salute: 2012 Women's College World Series Team

When Beth Torina was introduced as LSU softball's fifth head coach in June 2012, she vowed to win in everything the program did and return to the Tigers to national prominence.

Torina accomplished just that during her inaugural campaign as LSU returned to Oklahoma City and the Women's College World Series.

Led by eight seniors, the Tigers knocked off two seeded teams and future SEC rivals in No. 8 Texas A&M and No. 9 Missouri along the way.

To get back to softball's biggest stage, LSU embraced the mantra of "Whatever It Takes". Torina gave puzzle pieces to the players ranging from academic success to key performances in practices and games throughout the season. Each piece had different people that had the 'it' factor, and the puzzle was completed leading into LSU's trip to the NCAA postseason.

The Tigers started NCAA Regional play with a dramatic 1-0 victory over Texas State. Juliana Santos capped a three-hit barrage in the seventh inning with a walkoff RBI-single.

Rachele Fico fired her second straight two-hit shutout in as many days as LSU stayed in the winner's bracket with a 2-0 triumph over Texas A&M.

In the NCAA College Station Regional championship, Brittany Mack put together a masterful performance in a 2-1 win over the Aggies. LSU scored its two runs on a pinch-hit sacrifice fly from Kailey McCasland and a Dylan Supak infield single that was followed by a A&M throwing error.

The Tigers opened up the NCAA Columbia Super Regional and exploded for a 6-1 victory by roughing up Missouri All-American hurler Chelsea Thomas. Allison Falcon led the way with a 2-for-3 effort and three RBIs.

After Missouri claimed a 5-1 game two win in 12 innings and overcame a career-best 17 strikeouts from Mack, LSU bounced back in the deciding contest aided by Simone Heyward's first extra base hit of the season. The timely three-run double came in the third inning and erased a 1-0 deficit.

Fico retired 12 of the final 14 Missouri hitters she faced, and Ashley Langoni squeezed the games last out with a runner on second base.

LSU carried the momentum into its opening game of the WCWS and fired out to a 2-0 lead on No. 1 California on a two-run, second inning single from Morgan Russell. The Golden Bears charged back with five unanswered runs highlighted by a three-run sixth inning.

Facing elimination in a 0-0 contest versus No. 19 South Florida, Andrews used alert base running to score the game's only run on a sacrifice popout in the sixth inning.

On a 1-0 offering, Falcon popped up to shortstop Kourtney Salvarola. Since Salvarola was playing drawn in with the bases loaded, Andrews tagged from the third base bag and scampered home. Salvarola's throw was offline which enabled Andrews to slide around the tag attempt head-first safely into home plate. Mack dealt a two-hit shutout to preserve the 1-0 win.

Defending national champion and No. 3 Arizona State ended LSU's run with a 6-0 win. The session attendance was 9,310, the largest number of fans to attend a softball game in program history.

Salute: 2004 Women's College World Series Team

For Yvette Girouard and the LSU softball program, the second run to the Women's College World Series was filled with as much joy, drama and excitement as the original.

Like in 2001, the Tigers accomplished the SEC triple crown and claimed the SEC Western Division, Regular Season and Tournament championships.

LSU also won a heart-stopping 13-inning affair and nearly pulled off an impossible feat at the WCWS.

After starting the 2004 campaign with a 5-3 record, the Tigers strung together a 17-game winning streak. LSU continued its climb up the polls sparked by a three-game sweep at No. 7 Alabama to end March and checked in with a No. 2 ranking heading into postseason play.

A trio of wins over Alabama, Auburn and Georgia, all ranked among the Top 15, allowed the Tigers to win their third SEC Tournament in five years.

Unlike 2001, LSU's quest to Oklahoma City didn't start inside the friendly confines of Tiger Park. Instead, the Tigers were shipped to Waco, Texas and Baylor University for the NCAA Regionals.

After wins over Texas A&M-Corpus Christi and Seton Hall, LSU found itself down 3-0 to Baylor after two innings. Camille Harris kickstarted a three-run third inning with a solo home run to left field. Three batters later, future All-American Leslie Klein belted a two-run triple down the right field line to even the score at 3-3.

The Tigers exploded for a quartet of runs in the 10th inning. Stephanie Hill and Lauren Delahoussaye provided RBIs coupled with a Baylor error and wild pitch.

The next day against Illinois, Julie Wiese jumpstarted LSU with a solo shot in the second inning followed by RBI hits from Delahoussaye in the third and fifth innings.

That would be more than enough run support for two-time All-American Kristin Schmidt. She was touched up for only an unearned run on three hits to go along with nine strikeouts as the Tigers raced past the Fighting Illini 4-1 to return to the WCWS.

Another Big 10 team, No. 6 Michigan, would bite the dust in LSU's opening game in Oklahoma City. After 11 scoreless frames, the Wolverines took a 2-0 advantage to open the 12th inning. In the home half, the Tigers used an RBI-single by Leigh Ann Danos and a passed ball to knot the score at 2-2.

LSU won the game in the 13th on a Harris infield single. After two throwing errors, Sara Fitzgerald crossed home for the game-winning run. In the circle, Schmidt fired all 13 innings and tallied 13 strikeouts.

Following a 2-0 setback to No. 2 UCLA, rain altered the WCWS schedule. The Tigers were faced with the task of winning three games in one day to advance to the championship game.

A Fitzgerald RBI-single in the fourth inning proved to be the game winner as LSU edged No. 4 Florida State 2-1 to start the day. Schmidt provided another 13 strikeouts and surrendered only one run on four hits.

The Tigers fought off elimination for a second time and erased an early 1-0 deficit against No. 5 California. Klein opened the second inning with a solo home run, Harris followed with a two-out, two-run double in the third and Delahoussaye tacked on an insurance run with an RBI-double during the sixth.

Schmidt added eight strikeouts and pitched around trouble to close out the 4-1 victory for her third win of the WCWS.

LSU was poised to finish out the hat trick and carried a 1-0 lead into the fifth inning. Seven outs away, the Golden Bears struck for a quartet of runs to take the win.

"What more could you ask for from your team," Girouard said after the game. "I told the team before we got off the bus this morning that we weren't leaving the park until they turned out the lights on us tonight and we are doing just that. Unfortunately, we came up just a little short.

"This team did everything my staff asked of them. They played with total heart. Kristin Schmidt pitched her heart out and this team never died. If I have ever coached a team that deserved to go to the national championship game, then it is certainly this group of girls."

Salute: 2001 Women's College World Series Team

Yvette Girouard's first season at LSU ended in storybook fashion as the Tigers racked up a school record 59 wins and qualified for the program's first Women's College World Series.

LSU also completed the SEC triple crown for the first time en route to the SEC Western Division, Regular Season and Tournament championships.

After splitting a doubleheader at No. 21 Louisiana-Lafayette on April 18, the Tigers reeled off 12 consecutive victories to climb up to No. 3 in the national rankings.

Girouard refocused her team after a 7-3 setback at Auburn in the regular season finale and fired back with a 6-0 win over Auburn to open the SEC Tournament.

Three days later, All-American Stephanie Hastings belted a solo home run that stayed just inside the left field foul pole to open the SEC Championship against No. 22 South Carolina.

The first-inning blast coupled with a stellar effort from SEC Player of the Year Britni Sneed in the circle were more than enough to avenge a 1-0 setback to the Gamecocks from the season before.

Sneed hurled a three-hitter to complete her undefeated SEC season and recorded a tournament-record 11 strikeouts against zero walks to secure the MVP honor and 1-0 triumph.

LSU opened NCAA Regional action with victories over Cornell, Penn State and No. 9 Arizona State before facing No. 19 Louisiana-Lafayette in the finals.

The Tigers broke through for a pair of runs in the third inning as Hastings and future All-American Trena Peel provided RBIs.

An Alana Addison homer brought ULL within 2-1, but Sneed shut the door on the Cajuns retiring 12 of the final 15 batters highlighted by a strikeout of Heather Bertrand to vault LSU to the Women's College World Series.

Following a 2-1 hard-fought, extra inning loss to No. 4 Stanford, the Tigers bounced back behind a Julie Wiese two-run homer to dismiss No. 15 Iowa and set up an elimination tussle with No. 5 Oklahoma, the defending national champion.

The teams battled deep into the night before LSU emerged with a gritty 2-1 triumph in the 13th inning. An errant throw off an Ashley Lewis ground ball allowed Jennifer Schuelke to cross the plate for the game winning run.

Sneed willed her way to an impressive 18 strikeouts, a program single-game record. She escaped multiple jams during extra innings, none more impressive than back-to-back Ks to get out of a bases loaded situation in the 10th.

The game was viewed by 1.57 million fans, a softball record at the time according to NCAA Productions.

Dr. F. King Alexander

President/Chancellor, LSU

LSU

Dr. F. King Alexander was named the incoming president and chancellor of Louisiana State University, which has an annual budget of $3.4 billion and more than 54,000 students. He was appointed to the position by the LSU Board of Supervisors in March 2013 and assumed the position on July 1, 2013.

Prior to being named the incoming president, Dr. Alexander was president of California State University, Long Beach (2006-2013) one of the nation's largest public universities located in southern California.

During his more than seven-year tenure at California State University, Long Beach, Dr. Alexander was twice named the California State University Student Association (CSSA) "President of the Year," which represents all 23 California State Universities and its over 440,000 students.

Prior to becoming president of California State University, Long Beach, Dr. Alexander was president of Murray State University in Kentucky (2001-2005) and was a faculty member at the University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana, where he was the director of the graduate higher education program.

A Kentucky native who grew up in north Florida, Dr. Alexander received his Ph.D. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in higher education administration with a focus on finance and educational policy analysis, and a Master of Science degree from the University of Oxford, Oxford, England in comparative educational studies.

As a teacher and administrator, Dr. Alexander has received many honors, including the University of Wisconsin-Madison School of Education Alumni Achievement Award (2002) and has research university faculty affiliations at the University of Wisconsin-Madison Center for the Study of Postsecondary Education (WISCAPE) and Cornell University Higher Education Research Institute (CHERI).

Alexander is an internationally-respected expert in higher education finance and public policy and frequently publishes in national journals and for organizations in this field. He has served as a reviewer, an editorial board member, and a university instructor and faculty member, teaching courses in higher education finance, law, history and current events.

Dr. Alexander also has been asked to represent public higher education colleges and universities on numerous occasions to the United States Congress on issues of college affordability, student indebtedness, and institutional efficiency and effectiveness in efforts to address many of the growing challenges facing American higher education. Due to his national recognition and involvement on higher education issues, Dr. Alexander has served on numerous U.S. higher education and statewide organizational leadership boards where he remains very active.

Dr. Alexander and his wife, Shenette, have three children: Kylie, Savannah and Madison.

Dr. Bill Demastes

Faculty Athletics Representative

Dr. Bill Demastes, a professor of English at LSU, is in his third year as Faculty Athletics Representative. Dr. Demastes earned his Ph.D. in English in 1986 from the University of Wisconsin-Madison with a Field of Study of Drama as Genre and a speciailization in 20th-Century American and British Drama. He earned his masters in English in June 1979 from the Univeristy of Georgia in Athens where he specialized in 19th-Century American Literature.

At LSU, he served as Associate Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences from 2001-2004 and Director of Undergraduate Studies for the Department of English from 1999-2001 and 2010-11. He has also served as Associate Chair of the Department of English (1998-99); Director of the Master of Arts in Liberal Arts Program (1996-2004); and, Director of Graduate Studies in the Department of English (1992-94; 2006-06).

He was honored with the LSU Alumni Association Faculty Excellence Award in 2000 and in 2002 won the LSU Distinguished Faculty Award. He was named in 2009 an LSU Rainmaker which is given to the top 100 LSU Faculty. In 2010 and 2013 he received the Tiger Athletic Association Undergraduate Teaching Award University College, and in the summer of 2011, he was named the Harry Ransom Summer Fellowship recipient by the University of Texas.

Joe Alleva

LSU Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics

Joe Alleva continues to bring unprecedented national recognition to LSU as Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics. Under Alleva's leadership, LSU enjoys one of the country's premier athletics programs with success on and off the field of competition. Now in his seventh year at LSU, Alleva is dedicated to athletic and academic excellence, and he is committed to providing the opportunities and the resources necessary for student-athletes to excel in competition, in the classroom and in the community. Alleva joined the LSU family on April 4, 2008 after a highly successful tenure as director of athletics at Duke University for 10 years. Alleva's role at LSU was further expanded in August of 2009 when vice chancellor was added to his title by the LSU Board of Supervisors. It is the first time in school history that the director of athletics has also held a vice chancellor position.

In September 2014, the LSU Board of Supervisors extended Alleva's contract through June of 2019.

Alleva is currently serving a five-year term on the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Committee, enhancing his reputation as one of the most respected athletic administrators in the country. Alleva has been appointed to numerous national committees throughout his career, including the Football Bowl Certification Committee, the NCAA Division I Championships/Competition Cabinet and several Southeastern Conference and Atlantic Coast Conference committees.

Upon his arrival at LSU, Alleva unveiled a strategic master plan for the LSU athletics program – "LSU: Thru and True" – to ensure the advancement and future of LSU Athletics as an exemplary enterprise. The central mission of the plan is to create an environment for student-athletes to reach their ultimate potential, prepare them to be champions in life and to set out goals and values for the entire athletics program.

Living up to Alleva's mantra of "competition, classroom, community," LSU student-athletes in 2013-14 logged more than 4,732 hours in community service work across 21 sports through LSU's "Geaux Givers" program. And a total of 88 proud Tigers received their degrees from the university during LSU commencement ceremonies in December and May. LSU's overall graduation success rate for all student-athletes has grown from 69 percent in 2008 to 81 percent in 2013.

With a strong commitment to academics, Alleva ensures that the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes is a first-class facility that provides student-athletes the resources necessary for success in the classroom and personal development. And with an emphasis on community service and outreach programs, the implementation under Alleva's direction of the "Geaux Givers" fosters a relationship between the local community and LSU student-athletes, who regularly participate in philanthropic events. Alleva has bolstered the athletic department's L-Club program to reach out and connect with former student-athletes, and he has supervised the thriving "Project Graduation" program in which many former student-athletes have returned to LSU to earn their degrees.

Alleva's tenure has been distinguished by a number of significant athletic achievements, including four straight 10-win seasons by the football team, a baseball national championship and two College World Series berths, two consecutive women's basketball Sweet 16 appearances, three gymnastics Super Six berths, a softball College World Series appearance and 15 NCAA Top 5 finishes indoors and outdoors by the men's and women's track and field teams.

LSU under Alleva's leadership claimed the 2009 baseball College World Series title, and the Tigers have earned 30 individual NCAA championships in the sports of men and women's track and field, gymnastics, men's golf and women's golf. LSU has captured 12 Southeastern Conference team championships, including the 2011 football crown, and the Tigers have won 80 individual SEC titles during Alleva's term. The Tigers in 2011-12 finished fourth in both the men's and women's Capital One Cup competition that identifies athletic excellence. LSU was one of only two schools in the country – and the only one in the SEC – to rank in the top four in both categories.

LSU's prominence was evident again in the final 2013-14 Learfield Sports Director's Cup standings that recognize the nation's best athletic programs, as the Tigers finished in the Top 25 for the ninth consecutive year. LSU was the only school in the Southeastern Conference to post a 10 win-season (10-3) in football, a 20-win season (20-14) in men's basketball and a 40-win season (46-16-1) in baseball.

The 2013 LSU football team recorded its seventh 10-win season in nine years and defeated Iowa in the Outback Bowl; the men's basketball team earned 20 victories for the first time since 2009; and the baseball team won its fifth SEC Tournament title in seven years and was an NCAA Tournament National Seed for the third straight season. The Lady Tiger basketball team earned his second consecutive Sweet 16 berth, and LSU gymnastics, led by National Coach of the Year D-D Breaux, enjoyed the finest season in its illustrious history, finishing No. 3 in the nation.

The LSU men's golf team recorded its highest national finish since 1967, as the Tigers placed third at the NCAA Championships. The men's track and field team placed fourth and the women's team sixth at the NCAA outdoor meet. The softball, volleyball, swimming and diving, women's tennis and women's golf teams each participated in NCAA postseason competition. The year was also highlighted by the inaugural season of the sand volleyball program, which gives more LSU female student-athletes the opportunity to compete at the intercollegiate level.

Alleva's vision will keep LSU among the nation's leaders in athletic facilities. In the fall of 2014, LSU opens the expansion of the South End Zone of Tiger Stadium – a project that adds premium seating, general public seating and two state-of-the-art video boards – continuing an effort to augment one of the most iconic venues in all of college sports. Since 2010, Alleva has directed an aggressive campaign to preserve and enhance the appearance of Tiger Stadium that has included the installation new windows, lighting systems, gating systems, and championship plazas.

Under Alleva's direction, LSU's world-renowned track and field program in 2010 received a new running surface in Bernie Moore Stadium, and extensive renovations to the Maddox Field House in the spring of 2014 give the Tigers a first-class indoor track and field venue. Alleva directed a major renovation to the University Club golf course that was completed in September 2010 and allows the LSU men's and women's golf teams to compete on one of the most challenging courses in the country. An overhaul of the LSU soccer facility was completed in the fall of 2011, converting the venue into fan-friendly venue that has attracted record-breaking crowds.

Future plans include a new gymnastics practice facility, a new tennis complex featuring indoor and outdoor courts, and a modern Nutrition Center for Student-Athletes, a facility that will house full-time chefs and nutritionists and provide the best dietary selections for all Fighting Tiger competitors.

Alleva is an innovator with bold ideas that benefit not only LSU but all of Greater Baton Rouge. He has been instrumental in the planning of the Bayou Country Superfest, a three-day country music concert and festival held in Tiger Stadium each spring. The event attracts over 100,000 visitors to the LSU campus and makes a tremendous economic impact upon the local community.

Alleva became director of athletics at Duke in 1998 and his impressive tenure there propelled the university into the ranks of America's top all-around collegiate programs. Among his outstanding list of accomplishments includes the greatest 10-year period in Duke Athletics, winning more ACC and NCAA championships than in any other decade in school history.

Alleva, whose hometown is Suffern, N.Y., majored in Finance at Lehigh University and received his bachelor's degree in 1975. While at Lehigh, Alleva was the quarterback of the football team and team captain in 1974. Alleva also played on the Lehigh baseball team. He served as a graduate assistant football coach and earned an MBA in 1976.

While at Duke, Alleva played a key role in Durham's community sports scene. He started Little League Baseball in Durham over 20 years ago, and also began the American Legion baseball program.

He is a member of the North Carolina American Legion Hall of Fame, Suffern High School Hall of Fame and the Rockland County Hall of Fame.

Alleva and his wife, Annie, have three children, J.D., Jeff, and Jenny, and one granddaughter.

Verge Ausberry

Senior Associate AD/Operations and Administration

A former LSU football standout, Verge Ausberry joined the athletics administrative staff in August 2001 as the Associate Athletics Director for Operations. He was appointed to the position of Senior Associate Athletics Director in May 2006.

Ausberry supervises and is responsible for football, operations and football scheduling. He also oversees the LSU men's and women's track and field programs, the equipment staff, the strength and conditioning staff, the Dr. Martin Broussard training room, the video department and football game management.

Ausberry, from New Iberia, La., played inside linebacker for the Tigers, lettering in 1986-89. He was part of two SEC championship teams, playing on teams that went to four bowl games.

Before joining the LSU athletic administration, he was very closely involved in the athletic program, first serving for almost seven years as a member of LSU's highly regarded Academic Center for Athletes.

After leaving the Academic Center, he moved in July 1999 to the Tiger Athletic Foundation staff as part of LSU's fundraising arm.

Ausberry received his Bachelor of Science degree in education in May of 1990, his Master of Education degree in administration, supervision and certification in child welfare in May of 1992 and his specialist in higher education administration in 2004. He is presently a doctoral candidate in higher education administration at LSU. He is married to the former Cheri Morial of New Orleans and they have two boys, Austin(10) and Jaiden(9).

Bo Bahnsen

Senior Associate AD/Compliance and Planning

Returning in 2009 to serve the department in the Compliance Office, Bahnsen is once again proving to be a very versatile member of the athletic department.

Before moving back to Compliance, Bahnsen served the previous five years, in a valuable role as Associate Athletics Director for Internal Relations, overseeing the ticket office and all customer service operations.

Prior to December of 2003, Bahnsen's primary responsibility for the previous 14 years was to serve as LSU's NCAA compliance officer.

Bahnsen served as manager of the LSU basketball team as an undergraduate at LSU. In 1982, he became the administrative assistant for the men's basketball team, where he worked for five years.

In July 1987, he became administrative assistant to Athletics Director Joe Dean, overseeing the purchasing office and departmental travel operations until his promotion in 1989. In 1989, he was assigned his primary responsibility as NCAA compliance officer as assistant athletics director, and then was promoted to associate AD in 1996.

Bahnsen has been responsible for overseeing the successful implementation of LSU's Tradition Fund Program, a football-seating plan that requires contributions for the right to purchase approximately 45,000 seats in Tiger Stadium. In 2009, he helped organize the highly successful LSU celebration of the 100th anniversary of the Men's Basketball Program.

A native of Wharton, Texas, Bahnsen attended Wharton County Junior College for two years before transferring to LSU in 1979. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree in physical education.

Bahnsen, 55, is married to the former Karen Mayson, a former LSU golfer and current head coach of the Lady Tigers golf program. The couple has two children, Darren and Devin.

Mark Ewing

Senior Associate AD/Business

Mark Ewing, a 30-year employee of Louisiana State University, is in his 14th year with the Athletics Department, and serves as the department's Senior Associate Athletics Director for Business and the department's Chief Financial Officer.

His duties as the department's Chief Financial Officer includes oversight of the departments over $109 million budget, management of the athletic business office, oversight of all travel, human resources, and purchasing. He also supervises the Athletic Ticket Office and serves as the liaison for concession operations. He is responsible for the department's financial forecasting and provides the financial information necessary for funding athletic construction and maintenance projects. He also serves as the department's administrator for men's and women's golf.

Ewing came to athletics from LSU's Office of Budget and Planning. He served as LSU's Budget Director overseeing the development and management of the university's operating budget.

Ewing, who is a native of Pointe Coupee Parish, received a bachelor's degree in finance from LSU in 1978 and a master's degree in public administration from LSU in 1995.

Ewing is married to the former Gail Ingram of Morgan City, La., and they have three daughters, Andrea, Arleen and Molly Sue. Andrea and her husband Cody Lee, Arleen and her husband John Daniel, and Molly Sue. He also has three granddaughters – Ainsley Grace who is the daughter of Molly Sue, and Dorothy Claire and Evelyn McLain who are the daughters of Arleen.

Ronnie Haliburton

Senior Associate AD/Athletic Facility Management

Ronnie Haliburton, who served as director of facility services in the LSU Athletics Department for three years, was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Athletic Facility Management in March 2007.

Haliburton came to the athletics department in December of 2003 from LSU's facility maintenance department, where he served as manager for five years. He was responsible for the overall management of custodial operations, special events crews, stock room inventory and equipment repair.

Haliburton played as a tight end for the LSU football team from 1986-89, and was a member of two Southeastern Conference championship teams. He later played for the Denver Broncos for three years.

He first joined LSU in an administrative capacity in 1994 as resident assistant of Broussard Hall, then the school's athletic dormitory, before moving to the weight room as a student assistant strength coach.

Haliburton became a resident manager in 1996 before being named coordinator of residence life later that year. In 1998, he became Manager of Facility Maintenance at LSU.

Eddie Nunez

Senior Associate AD/Internal Operations

Eddie Nuñez joined the Athletics Department in October 2003 and since then has held 6 positions in the 11 years. In 2010, he was appointed to Senior Associate Athletic Director. With over 14 years of experience in working in intercollegiate athletics, Nuñez brings a background as a former student athlete, a collegiate coach and as a collegiate administrator to LSU.

As a member of the Senior Management Team, Nuñez's responsibilities include assisting in the oversight of day to day operations of the athletic department and serves as the department administrator for men's basketball program and men's and women's tennis programs. He is responsible for the management of the Strategic Master Plan for the department, the management and oversight of the Event Management department, the Marketing and Promotions department as well as directs all capital projects for the Athletic Department and Tiger Athletic Foundation. Under his guidance, the athletic department has experienced over $350 million dollars in renovations and construction of capital projects. Nuñez also serves as the Athletic Department's liaison with LSU Sports Properties and Tiger Athletic Foundation, the principal fundraising arm of LSU athletics. During his time at LSU, he has been appointed to represent the department of athletics on various University and community committees.

Nuñez came to LSU after two and half years as the Director of Game and Event Management at Vanderbilt University. At Vanderbilt, along with directing the Game and Event Management department, he also assisted in construction and renovation of numerous athletic facilities. Prior to that, Nuñez served as men's basketball administrative assistant coach at Marquette University for one year and was men's basketball graduate assistant for coach Billy Donovan at the University of Florida for the previous two years. While attending the University of Florida, he played two seasons on the men's basketball team in 1997 and 1998 and was a twice on the SEC All Academic Honor Roll. He transferred to Florida after playing two years and obtaining a degree from Miami-Dade Community College.

The native of Miami, Fla., received his Associate degree in arts in architecture from Miami-Dade Community College in 1995, his Bachelor's in Sports Management and Masters in Sports Administration from the University of Florida in 1998 and 2000, respectively. He is married to the former Jane Hess of Owensboro, KY., and the couple have two daughters, Elizabeth Kendall Nuñez (6) and Anna Caldwell Nuñez (3).

Miriam Segar
Senior Associate AD/Senior Woman Administrator

Former LSU women's basketball player Miriam Segar has been a part of the athletics administration since June of 1995 and was most recently named Senior Associate AD and the department's Senior Woman Administrator after having served as Associate Athletics Director for Student Services since April 2007. She had served as Assistant Athletics Director since 2004.

As LSU's Senior Woman Administrator, Segar's responsibilities include oversight of the highly successful Tiger Olympic Sports program including 17 men's and women's sports. She also supervises the Tiger baseball program and the LSU cheerleaders. Segar began her administrative career at LSU as the compliance coordinator where she served for three years. Following that, in 1998, Segar was named the director of the CHAMPS/Life Skills Program where she worked until 2001 when she became the Director of Student Services.

While working with CHAMPS/Life Skills, Segar guided the program to the Division I Athletic Directors Program of Excellence Award in 2001.

Prior to returning to her alma mater, Segar spent one year at the SEC office as the championships assistant and the officiating assistant, assisting in the management of all SEC championships and tournaments and the coordination of women's basketball officials.

Segar, the 2006 Athletic Department Female Alumnus of the Year, was a three-year captain for the Lady Tigers basketball team and received four letters from 1990 to 1994. She earned the 1994 NCAA Post-graduate Scholarship and was a member of the 1994 NCAA All-Academic team.

Segar and her husband Jamie have four children – Grant, Reid, Maggie and Hayes.

Brian Broussard
Associate AD/Ticket Sales and Operations

An 18-year veteran of the Athletics Department, including 14 years as ticket manager, Brian Broussard was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Ticket Operations in July 2007 and Associate AD in 2012.

Broussard is responsible for revenue in excess of $50 million, which includes the management of ticket and parking sales and renewals for all sports, as well as Tradition Fund donations for football, men's basketball and baseball.

Broussard began at LSU in August 1996 as an assistant ticket manager responsible for men's basketball sales and the day-to-day operations of ticket office. In March 2000, he was promoted to ticket manager, becoming responsible for the ticketing in all sports.

Prior to joining the LSU staff, Broussard was the ticket manager at Northwestern State in 1996. He worked as a promotions assistant at the University of Miami in 1995 and was the gameday club manager for the New Orleans Saints in 1994.

The Gretna native earned his bachelor's degree in political science from LSU in 1993. He is married to the former Aimee Hodges of Alexandria.

Emmett David
Associate AD/Facility and Project Development

Emmett David joined the LSU Athletics Department in 2012 after serving as Director of the Office of Planning Design and Construction at LSU since June of 1996.

He will assist in facility and project development for the Athletic Department including the newly completed South Stadium addition and future projects for such sports as tennis and gymnastics and other property holding enhancements.

Among his responsibilities for the University was to serve as facility officer for Doctoral I Research Institution consisting of 11.2 million gross square feet with 250 primary buildings. He also was responsible for the 5-year Capital Outlay project planning of some $484 million, deferred maintenance reporting and funding; and, ADA and Life Safety Code deficiency projects, budgets and tracking of expenditures of some $200 million. He was responsible for nearly $800,000 in physical development on campus with projects such as Choppin Annex, Residential College, Business Education Complex, Raphael Semmes Parking Garage and numerous major maintenance, repair and restoration projects.

He also coordinated and implemented master plans for such departments as Parking and Traffic, Athletics, Veterinary Medicine, Student Health Center, Union, University Recreation, South Campus and Residential Life.

David developed long range planning of future projects and the impact of associated displacement and monitored and managed space inventory and he has served as a Staff Senator.

David graduated from LSU with a Bachelor of Architecture in 1982 and his Master of Public Administration in 2006. He is a registered licensed architect by the state of Louisiana.

Emmett and his wife Maurine have two children Chloe and Gabe, who are both residents of Baton Rouge.

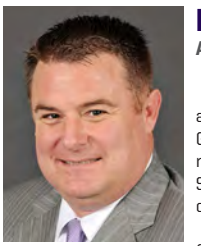
His primary duties include monitoring the Athletic Department's over $109 million budget, and assisting coaches and administrators in formulating budgets for future years. He also serves as the liaison to the athletic department's retail sales operations and Tiger Booster Clubs.

Lamonica began his professional career at LSU in 2000 in the athletic department compliance office before moving to the business office in June 2003. He served as Coordinator of Athletic Business until December 2005, when he was named Business Manager.

Lamonica was promoted to Director of Fiscal Operations in November 2009.

Lamonica received a bachelor's degree in mass communications from LSU in 1998, and he earned an LSU master's degree in business administration in 2003.

Lamonica and his wife, Blythe, are the parents of three sons – Davis, Sam Henry and Luke.



Mathew Shanklin
Assistant AD/Marketing

Mathew Shanklin begins his fourth year at LSU serving as the Assistant Athletic Director of Marketing and as the General Business Manager for LSU Sports Properties, the multi-media rights holder for Tiger Athletics. Previously, Shanklin served 20 years as the Associate Athletic Director of Marketing and Licensing at the University of Arkansas.

Shanklin supervises all operations and client services for LSU Sports Properties, while also managing the LSU Marketing efforts. Since joining LSU, he has implemented several new initiatives including the Bengal Brigade Street team and the new Band pre-game presentation for men's basketball.

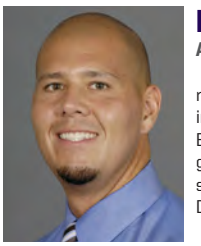
While at Arkansas, Shanklin was in charge of all department marketing/promotions, corporate sponsorships, advertising sales and coordinated all sales and programming for the football, basketball and baseball video boards. He was instrumental in developing the HogPen, a tailgating area for fans inside Baum Stadium, the Hog Spa hot tub area at Baum Stadium and the RBI Girls. Shanklin was instrumental in establishing the school's first baseball radio network in 1992, one of the nation's largest with more than 25 affiliates statewide as well as creating the first Hispanic radio network for the University of Arkansas. In 1998, Shanklin became the university's licensing coordinator and under his direction, licensing revenues increased every quarter.

Shanklin was assistant marketing director at East Carolina University for a year before going to Arkansas. He had served as an intern at Arkansas for five months before joining the ECU staff.

A 1984 graduate of South Mecklenburg (N.C.) High School in Charlotte, N.C., where he lettered in baseball and soccer, Shanklin earned his degree in communications from North Carolina-Wilmington in 1988.

A graduate of Ohio University's highly respected sports administration program, Shanklin earned a master's degree in that program in the fall of 1989.

An avid golfer, Shanklin married the former Missy Emmerson of Jacksonville, Texas, in 2003. She has a daughter, Jordan (18) who attends LSU, and they are also the parents of Barbara Blake (8) and Isabella Grace (6).



David Taylor
Assistant AD/Game-Event Management

David Taylor, who has been a part of LSU's game management team since September 2005, was promoted in August 2014 to Assistant Athletic Director of Game and Event Management. Taylor handles all aspects regarding game management of athletic events while overseeing a staff that helps coordinate all events within the LSU Athletic Department grounds.

Taylor, who started as game management coordinator, was promoted to Assistant Director in 2006 and Associate Director in 2008. He assumed the directorship of Game and Event Management in September 2011.

Prior to that, Taylor served as Assistant Coordinator of Athletic Facilities and Game Operations at Texas State University from 2003 to 2005.

Taylor earned his B.S. degree from Texas-El Paso in 1999 and his Masters in Sports Management in 2003.

Michael Bonnette

Senior Associate AD/Sports Information

Michael Bonnette enters his 15th year as LSU's Sports Information Director and second as Senior Associate Athletic Director after being promoted to his current position in the fall of 2013. Bonnette held the title of Associate Athletic Director from April of 2007. Bonnette was originally elevated to Sports Information Director in August of 2000 and then promoted to Assistant Athletic Director in July of 2004.

As Sports Information Director, Bonnette serves as the chief contact for LSU's nationally-ranked football team as well as overseeing all publicity activities for the 21 sports sponsored by the Athletic Department.

The 44-year-old Bonnette, who served as an Associate Sports Information Director for seven years, is in his 21st year with the LSU Athletic Department.

His 2012 LSU Football media guide was named "Best in the Nation" by CoSIDA, one of several awards he has received from the organization and in the Louisiana Sports Writers Association annual writing contests.

The Lake Charles, La., native has been around the sports media relations profession his entire life as he is the son of retired McNeese State Sports Information Director Louis Bonnette, a member of the CoSIDA Hall of Fame. The field at Cowboy Stadium in Lake Charles bears the name Louis Bonnette Field. His brother, Matthew, continued the family tradition at McNeese by being named Sports Information Director in July 2012, following his Dad in the position.

Bonnette, who is a 1993 graduate of LSU, is past president of SIDs for the Southeastern Conference and is currently the vice-president for SIDs for the LSWA. He is married to the former Robin Arnaud of Opelousas, La., and the couple has three sons, Peyton (16), Grant (15) and Max (9).

Bill Franques

Senior Associate SID

Bill Franques works as the LSU baseball program's media relations director, and he serves as managing editor of LSU's football, men's basketball and baseball game programs.

His 2012 LSU football game program was voted best in the nation by College Sports Information Directors of America.

The LSU baseball media guide, written and edited by Franques, has four times been named best in the nation by CoSIDA. His baseball brochures have finished among the top six in the country in 16 of the past 21 seasons, including his 2012 and 2013 guides, which were voted No. 1 by CoSIDA.

Franques is the Alex Box Stadium public address announcer and the color analyst on LSU Sports Radio Network broadcasts of baseball road games. In addition, he is the producer and co-host of LSU Tiger Tracks, a weekly television program featuring LSU sports personalities.

Franques also worked from 1997-2000 as the LSU baseball administrative assistant. His duties included coordinating team travel, organizing fundraising events and booster club meetings, and overseeing office operations.

Franques received a Bachelor of Arts degree from LSU in 1985. The Lafayette, La., native is married to the former Yvette Lemoine of Bunkie, La., and they have three children -- William Paul Jr. (14), Benjamin Lewis (12) and Madeline Lemoine (10).

Kent Lowe

Senior Associate SID

A member of the LSU Sports Information staff since August 1988 and beginning his 27th athletic year at LSU, Kent Lowe was appointed senior associate SID in August 2000. He serves as the primary media contact for the LSU men's basketball team and women's golf team.

He has also for the past 21 years written an award-winning bowling column for The (Baton Rouge) Advocate.

Lowe, 56, came to LSU from Louisiana Downs where he served as publicity director for the Bossier City, La., racetrack.

Lowe is a member of CoSIDA, which voted his 2010 men's basketball media guide "Best in the Nation" and his 2012 men's basketball guide third in the nation. He is a member of CoSIDA's prestigious Academic All-American committee as well.

Lowe is also a past president and current treasurer of the Louisiana Sports Writers Association.

The Shreveport native is heavily involved with the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame and for the past 12 years has produced the regionally-televised induction ceremonies.

Lowe is a 1979 graduate from LSU-Shreveport. He earned his masters' degree at LSU in 1982.

Matt Dunaway

Associate SID

Matt Dunaway moves into his sixth season as an associate sports information director where he serves as the primary media relations contact for LSU's women's basketball program and assists with football and men's basketball publicity. He also operates as the department's liaison to the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes for postgraduate scholarship and academic award nominations.

Dunaway, 33, spent his first five years at LSU as the softball and volleyball SID where he had the opportunity to publicize six All-Americans which include Brittnee Cooper and Briana Holman (volleyball) along with A.J. Andrews, Rachele Fico, Brittany Mack and Kirsten Shortridge (softball). His 2012 softball media guide was voted No. 1 in the nation by CoSIDA.

Dunaway holds the color analyst role for softball broadcasts on the LSU Sports Radio Network and serves as the volleyball play-by-play announcer for webcasts on LSUsports.net.

Dunaway came to LSU from Rice where he promoted the Owls' women's basketball and tennis teams in addition to sharing secondary football duties. Prior to Rice, Dunaway spent two years across town as a sports information assistant at the University of Houston as primary contact for the Cougars' softball, volleyball and tennis programs.

Dunaway graduated from UCF in May 2005 with a BA in broadcast journalism from the Nicholson School of Communication. He was a student assistant in the sports information office and held sports director duties for the student chapter of the UCF ISP Sports Network responsible for broadcasting Golden Knight volleyball, women's basketball, softball and baseball.

Dunaway is a member of CoSIDA and the Louisiana Sports Writers Association.

Will Stafford

Associate SID

Will Stafford enters his seventh year as a member of the LSU Sports Information staff as he serves as associate SID in charge of the national champion men's and women's track and field programs, as well as the men's golf and women's soccer programs.

Stafford is a native of Franklinton, La., and a 2006 graduate of LSU's Manship School of Mass Communication with a Bachelor of Arts degree in journalism.

Prior to receiving a full-time position at LSU, Stafford served as a graduate assistant with the sports information staff for two years while completing a master's degree in sport management in the summer of 2008. In addition, he served as a student assistant at LSU for four years from 2003-06.

Stafford's media guides have been judged in the top five in the country on nine occasions by the College Sports Information Directors of America. This includes the fifth-ranked men's track and field guide in 2007; the third-ranked men's golf, fourth-ranked women's soccer and fourth-ranked women's track and field guides in 2008; the second-ranked men's golf and third-ranked women's track and field guides in 2009; the second-ranked track and field guide in 2011; and the second-ranked men's golf and third-ranked track and field guide in 2012.

In addition, four of Stafford's media guides have received the "Best Cover" honor as the nation's top design, including track and field in 2007, 2009 and 2011, and men's golf in 2009.

In June 2014, Stafford was announced as the recipient of the inaugural Excellence in Communications Award presented annually by the U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association. The USTFCCCA announced his selection leading up to the 2014 NCAA Division I Outdoor Track & Field Championships held in Eugene, Oregon.

He and his wife of four years, the former Claire Adams of Baton Rouge, were married on July 24, 2010, in Lake Junaluska, North Carolina, and have one son, 7-month-old Liam Stafford.

Jake Terry

Associate SID/Social Media

Jake Terry begins his fifth year as Associate SID where he serves as coordinator of social and new media, handles all publicity for the LSU gymnastics team and functions as the No. 2 contact for the football team.

As social media coordinator, Terry has overseen the growth and influence of the LSU Athletics accounts across several social networks.

Terry earned his master's degree in sport management at LSU in 2010 after receiving a Bachelor of Arts degree in broadcast journalism from LSU's Manship School of Mass Communication in 2008.

Prior to receiving a full-time position, Terry served as a graduate assistant for two years at LSU when he handled responsibilities for gymnastics and assisted with football. During his time as a student, he worked as an SID for women's tennis and also served briefly as interim SID for softball, volleyball and women's basketball.

Terry, 28, is a Baton Rouge native and is married to the former Allison Stuckey.

Clyde Verdin

Associate SID

Clyde Verdin is in his first season as an associate sports information director at LSU, serving as the primary contact for softball and volleyball, while also acting as the department's liaison to the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes and the department's community service efforts.

Prior to joining the staff, Verdin, 30, worked for over two years as the director of media relations at his Alma Mater of Nicholls State University in Thibodaux, Louisiana, where he oversaw the media relations efforts for all 13 of the university's Division I sports.

After receiving his bachelor of arts in broadcast journalism from Nicholls in 2008, Verdin went on to complete internships at the University of Missouri and with the New Orleans Pelicans of the NBA.

A native of Morgan City, Louisiana, Verdin is married to the former Stephanie Detillier of Raceland, Louisiana.

Steve Franz

Photography Coordinator

Steve Franz, LSU's staff photographer, joined the LSU athletics department in July of 1998 after being around the Tiger sports scene for years.

Prior to joining LSU athletics, the New Orleans native served as photographer for the independent Tiger Rag magazine for five years. Franz was also a photographer for United Press International covering some of the area's major political events, Presidential visits, the New Orleans Saints and the NCAA men's and women's Final Fours in New Orleans.

Franz, 43, has had his pictures published in several national magazines, including Sports Illustrated and The Sporting News. He is a 1993 graduate of LSU.

Krystal Faircloth

Publications Director

Krystal Faircloth is in her second year as Publications Director for the LSU Athletics Publications Office. Her responsibilities include overseeing the visual brand identity of LSU Athletics along with the design of print, web, interactive, apparel, social media, environmental signage and any other projects for all varsity sports.

Faircloth, 30, previously assisted the publications office as graphic design coordinator for seven years while being the primary graphic designer for the Tiger Athletic Foundation. Prior to that, she worked as a student assistant in the LSU Athletics department for two years before earning her bachelor's degree in graphic design in May 2006.

She has produced 23 media guides that have finished among the top five in the nation in the annual CoSIDA publications contest. Her 2006 men's tennis guide, 2009 & 2011 baseball guides and 2009 & 2011 track and field guides were all awarded "Best Cover" honors. More recently, her 2012 and 2013 baseball guides were awarded back-to-back "Best in the Nation."

Formerly Krystal Bennett, she is married to Jordan Faircloth, a former LSU baseball pitcher who played under both Skip Bertman and Smoke Laval. She is a Haughton, La., native and a graduate of Haughton High School.

Hannah Brinks

Graphic Design Coordinator

Hannah Brinks is in her third year as a graphic design coordinator for the LSU Athletics Publications Office. Her responsibilities include the design and production of print and digital communications for the athletic department.

Prior to coming to LSU, Brinks, 25, was a graphic designer with Crimson Tide Productions at the University of Alabama, where she designed in both print and digital formats for Gymnastics, Women's Golf, Softball, and Women's Basketball.

She earned her BFA cum laude in Digital Media/Graphic Design from The University of Alabama, and was a record setting member of the Crimson Tide Swimming and Diving team, competing at SEC Championships, NCAA's, US Open, US Nationals, World Championship Trials and Olympic Trials.

Stephanie Lyles

Graphic Design Coordinator

Stephanie Lyles is in her first year as a graphic design coordinator for the LSU Athletics Publications Office. Her responsibilities include the design and production of print and digital communications for the athletic department.

Prior to coming to LSU, Lyles, 27, was a graphic designer with Pinnacle Entertainment, where she worked in the Regional Marketing department, designing print material for multiple casino properties throughout the South.

She earned her bachelor's degree in graphic design in May 2010 from LSU. She is a Baton Rouge, La., native and a graduate of University High School.

Media Guidelines

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

All media members are encouraged to apply for season credentials through LSUsports.net/media. A 2015 season media provides access to the press box at Tiger Park and all of its working media areas.

For individual games, requests should be made at least 48 hours in advance by contacting Clyde Verdin at cverdin@lsu.edu in the LSU Sports Information Office.

Passes may be picked up starting 60 minutes prior to first pitch at the Media Will Call area located outside the Tiger Park Ticket Office.

VISITING RADIO

A phone line is located inside the press box for visiting radio broadcasts for Southeastern Conference opponents. Please inform SID Clyde Verdin if you wish to broadcast your game on the radio.

Non-conference opponents wishing to do radio broadcasts must contact Director of Broadcasting Jim Hawthorne of the LSU Sports Network at (225) 578-1882.

GAME INFORMATION

Each game day media will be provided with a program that includes updated notes, statisics and wireless internet information for the press box at Tiger Park.

Final box score and stat books which includes play-by-play will be available shortly following each game.

POST GAME INTERVIEWS

Interviews with players and coaches are done on the field post game after the team's 10-minute cooling off period following the day's final game. Please inform SID Clyde Verdin if you need to request a specific player.

No interviews will be held between games of a doubleheader or after the first game of tournament play.

For assistance with opposing coaches and players, contact that school's SID for their postmatch media procedures.

COVERING PRACTICES

LSU softball practices generally range from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. at Tiger Park. Most practice sessions are open to the media but are subject to change. During the season, the Tigers have most Mondays off from practice.

Interviews with coaches and players are held before practice based on player class schedules and team travel.

Advance notice, preferably 24 hours, is needed for all interview requests. Please schedule all interviews by contacting SID Clyde Verdin at (225) 578-8226 or cverdin@lsu.edu.

SEC MEDIA INFORMATION

Jill Skotarczak is the softball media relations contact for the Southeastern Conference. She can be reached at jskotarczak@sec.org or via phone at (205) 458-3000.

Each Monday, the league will name a Player of the Week, a Pitcher of the Week and a Freshman of the Week throughout the 2014 season.

The SEC Website, SECSports.com, can be accessed 24/7/365 to access updated standings, statistics and notes.

Media can now access images for all LSU athletic teams, including action shots, heads shots, logos, etc.

To gain access to the high-resolution pictures, e-mail Clyde Verdin (cverdin@lsu.edu). You will be assigned a login and password that will enable you to retrieve pictures. This service is for the media use only. Resale of these pictures is strictly prohibited.

LSU SOFTBALL ON THE RADIO

The LSU Sports Radio Network gives Tiger softball one of the most comprehensive audiences across the nation. As Tiger softball begins its 19th season of extensive radio coverage, the LSU Sports Radio Network is scheduled to carry 30 games which includes all of the team's 24 SEC contests.

The LSU Sports Radio Network brings Tiger softball to its many fans with broadcasts in the Baton Rouge area on 104.5/104.9 FM.

Patrick Wright, the voice of Tiger softball for the previous 18 seasons, will provide all of the play-by-play action. Wright also is the voice of LSU women's basketball team and serves as one of the locker room reporters for radio broadcasts of LSU football games.

LSU Associate SID Matt Dunaway joins Wright for his seventh season on the air during home and selected road games.

The LSU Sports Radio Network also will cover all of the Tigers postseason games from the SEC and NCAA Tournaments.

LSU SOFTBALL ON THE INTERNET

The LSU softball team was one of the first collegiate softball teams to have its games broadcast over the internet. All softball broadcasts can be heard inside the GeauxZone at LSUsports.net/live.

Members of the GeauxZone also have access to these exclusive broadcasts on demand with the purchase of a subscription. Visit LSUsports.net to join the GeauxZone today.

LSU SOFTBALL ON TELEVISION

LSU softball will have 11 games televised during the 2015 season highlighted by nine on the brand-new SEC Network.

Over 400 Southeastern Conference Softball games will be televised on the network, as LSU will square off against Arkansas, Florida, South Alabama, Kentucky, Texas A&M and Missouri will all be on the new network, while games against Oklahoma, Tennessee and Auburn will be on the main ESPN family of networks.

For the fifth consecutive season, all games of the SEC Tournament also will be televised by the ESPN family of networks. The four-day tournament will be hosted by LSU May 6-9 in Baton Rouge. The first eight games of the tournament will be televised live on the SEC Network, with the semifinals moving to ESPNU and the finals on ESPN2.

2015 LSU Softball Camps

ELITE CAMP • JUNE 8-10

8TH-12TH GRADE • OVERNIGHT AND DAY CAMPER OPTIONS

Elite Camp is designed for players entering the 8th-12th grade only. Campers will be divided into competitive teams and will be coached by a collegiate level coach for all sessions. Sessions will be geared toward team concepts and individual skills which will prepare players for high school level softball. Campers will participate in a strength and conditioning session, have their swing video analyzed, learn recruiting rules and strategies and become familiar with collegiate academic standards. Camp staff will include: current LSU coaching staff, current and former LSU players, current and former collegiate athletes, professional athletes and select college coaches from the across the country.

ALL SKILLS/TIGER CUBS CAMP • JUNE 15-17

AGES 4-14 • OVERNIGHT AND DAY CAMPER OPTIONS

The All Skills Camp will focus on the development of all fundamental skills of the game. The camp staff will work with all skill levels in the areas of hitting, bunting, base running, infield and outfield play, pitching, catching and game competition. Included in this camp are demonstrations, drills, and position specific work. Campers will participate in a strength and conditioning session, and each camper will have their swing video analyzed.

PITCHING/CATCHING CAMP • JUNE 22-23

AGES 4-18 • DAY CAMP • AGES 4-6: 9 A.M.-12 P.M.
AGES 7-18: 9 A.M.-4 P.M.

Campers will be trained by a collegiate level staff as well as former and current LSU players, professional players and other collegiate players. Pitchers will be divided by skill level and will learn the mechanics of pitching, improve their speed and accuracy and/or learn and develop movement pitches. An experienced catching staff will train the catchers on the skills of blocking, receiving, throwing, calling pitches and much more. Each session, the pitchers and catchers will work together in order to immediately transfer skills into full speed movements.

HITTING/SLAPPING • JUNE 24-25

AGES 4-18 • DAY CAMP • AGES 4-6: 9 A.M.-12 P.M.
AGES 7-18: 9 A.M.-4 P.M.

Campers will be trained by a collegiate level staff as well as former and current LSU players, professional players and other collegiate players. Hitters and slappers will spend both days developing a strong fundamental base before moving into movement pitches, contact points, power and placement. Each day will be a mix of drills, live swings, vision, and strength training.
